Leader Development Committee Guidelines

The Leader Development Committee may be a standing committee whose Chairman may be appointed. The purpose of the Leader Development Committee is to equip and encourage leaders.

Committee Guidelines

The Leader Development Committee may:

- Share ideas and expertise to support the development and participation of future leaders.
- Actively demonstrate Christ's love to each other united as sisters in Christ.
- Utilize LWML resources and training materials to equip each other in leadership roles.
- Promote the education and training of leaders of all ages, helping them develop skills so that they can achieve their potential as leaders.
- Encourage the use of Leader Development materials for group and personal growth.
- Assist in the preparation of Leader Development workshops and seminars.
- Mentor and encourage women of all ages to be leaders.
- Spend time together as committee members studying God's Word, praying, and planning.
- Conduct leader training at Executive Committee and Board of Directors meetings as feasible.
- Be bold and "step out of the box" with ideas and encouragement.
- Be resourceful and helpful to the president.

We have different gifts, according to the grace given us...if it is encouraging, let them encourage ... if it is leadership, let him govern diligently; ... let him do it cheerfully.

Romans 12:6a and 8

What Am I To Do As A Committee Member or Chairman?

- Thank God for this opportunity to serve Him and pray for His guidance in all you do.
- Familiarize yourself with the LWML Handbook, the official LWML publications, the LWML website, and the LWML catalog.
- Search for new materials that will assist women to develop leadership skills and leadership styles and their confidence in using them.
- Present LWML Leader Development materials whenever there is an opportunity.
- Be creative and assist in producing leader development materials.
- When using materials someone else has written, credit the source.
- Acknowledge all correspondence promptly.

God has chosen you for the position you are now occupying.
Always do ALL TO HIS GLORY!!!

What Am I To Do Additionally As A Chairman?

- Review files from past Leader Development Committee chairmen.
- When producing leader development materials, consult with your pastor or LWML Counselor, assuring materials will be doctrinally correct. Submit materials to the LWML Christian Resources Editors.

Chairman Guidelines

The Leader Development Committee Chairman may:

- Plan and implement Leader Development programs.
- Promote the use of Leader Development materials from the LWML catalog.
- Maintain a file of all correspondence, reports, and news articles relevant to Leader Development.
- Encourage and work with the Leader Development Committee.
- Maintain a file of all Leader Development materials available from LWML, district, or zone and any materials developed locally that have been reviewed by your pastor or LWML Counselor.
- Evaluate and report on all Leader Development workshops and activities. Include the date, time, place, attendance, theme, program, and evaluation of each.

Chairman Transition of Office

- Pass on to your successor all materials and files pertaining to the office.
- Immediately following conclusion of term of office, review all past and current programs with the new chairman.
- Submit appropriate records and materials to Archivist-Historian.
