LWML Affirms The Time is NOW to Have a Heart for the Harvest

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) committees and task forces from across the country met in St. Louis, Missouri, October 23-26, 2014, to continue their work and prepare for the 2015 LWML Convention in Des Moines, Iowa. Lutheran Women in Mission always begin their planning with Bible study and prayer and these important elements continue as God works through this organization. The theme, Heart for the Harvest, based on Matthew 9:37-38, and the rallying cry that The Time is NOW to make a difference for Christ around the world, in local communities, and in each participant's personal life gave new energy and focus to those attending.

Mites (offerings), given in thankful response to all God has provided, throughout the weekend totaled $2,660.80, and will go towards the 2013-2015 Mission Grants. $220 and over 330 gifts were brought from across the country and donated to Lutheran Family and Children's Services

of Missouri. The organization's mission is to help families, children, and individuals experience greater hope and wholeness of life. LWML President Kay Kreklau reiterated what Pastoral Counselors Rev. John Heckmann and Rev. Dr. Robert Roegner advocated in their Bible studies, that The Time is NOW to share Christ's mission and mercy with the world through the LWML. She commended the participants for a job well done and women with a Heart for the Harvest were sent home with renewed energy and enthusiasm, to be faithful laborers in the harvest field.

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) is the official women's auxiliary of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. Since 1942, the LWML has focused on affirming each woman's relationship with Christ, encouraging and equipping women to live out their Christian lives in active mission ministries and to support global missions.
