Faithful LWML Sisters

At the end of 2010, the Lord called two wonderful LWML sisters to their eternal home in heaven.

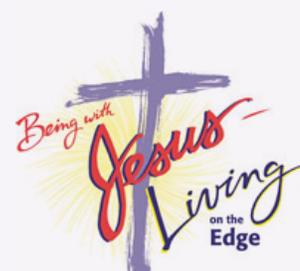

Mabel Schmidt, who completed her term as Iowa District East LWML president in 2010, went home on December 13, 2010. At her memorial service, LWML President Janice Wendorf said, "Mabel was a Lutheran Woman in Mission who was in the Word, of the Word, and walked with the Word made flesh, her dear Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Mabel was the face of LWML."

On December 21, Velma E. Mann was received into her Savior's arms and received her crown of life. Velma's daughter, Janell McKinstry, shared that her mother "was proud to have been a member of Lutheran Women's Missionary League from the beginning of the organization." Velma and her husband, Dale, attended many LWML conventions together.

God blessed the LWML through the work of these dedicated servants.

CONVENTION CENTRAL :: LWML Plays in Peoria

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) is the official women's auxiliary of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. For over 65 years, the LWML has focused on affirming each woman's relationship with Christ, encouraging and equipping women to live out their Christian lives in active mission ministries and to support global missions.

Please remember LWML in your estate plan. Our legal name is: "Lutheran Women's Missionary League."
