

When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and when you pass through the rivers, they will not sweep over you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned; the flames will not set you ablaze.

Isaiah 43:2

Spotlight

Say hello to Anuhea Corbin. This LWML Nebraska South District young woman and former Heart to Heart Sister is a wife to Reggie and mother to three children. She stays home with her children and also teaches preschool part-time.

While growing up in Hawaii, Anuhea, a third generation LWMLer, was introduced to the LWML by her mother and grandmother through devotions, Bible study, and fellowship. After moving to Nebraska, she was invited to join an LWML group and was reminded of what she loved about it. Anuhea's advice: To get more young women involved is to issue a personal invitation — "Share how your involvement in LWML has made a positive impact on your life."

Anuhea's favorite Bible verse [left] has helped her through some beautiful scarring times. One of the most recent and significant in her life was just last October. Her father had a stroke that put him on life support. She was terrified, and while flying to Maui to be with him, she prayed continually for God to work a miracle. God did work a miracle, and her father is recovering. Anuhea says, regarding beauty in this scar, "My family has spent more time praying together, reading God's Word, trusting His plans, and sharing the miracles we have seen with others." They continue to pray and trust in God's providence in their lives.

Devotional Thoughts

He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed.
1 Peter 2:24

Christ died in our place; He bore the punishment we deserved. He was innocent but took our guilt upon Himself. Because He died on the cross, we can live for righteousness. We are spiritually healed, and have salvation in Him. Thank you God for the beautiful scars of Jesus' death, which bring me healing and full salvation. Amen.

What can I do to help others' wounds heal into beautiful scars?

- Pray for them.
- Send them cards.
- Take them a meal.
- Offer to watch their kids.
- Call/Text them.
- Offer them a ride to church.
- Offer to grocery shop for them.
