Little four-year-old Kelsey loved stickers. Even though she had a large supply of her own, her desperate desire was for her mother’s special stickers — “stickers” Mommy called postage stamps.

While her dad was busy caring for her brother, she snuck over to Mommy’s desk, took out the coveted stamps, and went to work, sticking them all over her body. Just as the last stamp was put on, her dad came into the room and found her covered in enough postage to mail herself across town!

As her dad relayed the story to his wife, Mom asked, “So, what did you do?”

Dad laughed and replied, “I did the only thing I could do. I put her in the mailbox!”

And I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?” Then I said, “Here I am! Send me” (Isaiah 6:8).

God has put His “stamp” on each of us. His directive is clear. We are told to go forth into the world and tell everyone about Jesus.

Are you ready to be “mailed” into the world, proclaiming Jesus’ love? Perhaps God will urge you to travel across the world into foreign lands. Others may be led to speak with a person covered with tattoos and piercings or the homeless person sitting outside the supermarket. Wherever and whenever God sends you, He travels with you and will never leave your side.

Where will God send you?
How will you respond to His call?

May all of us answer, “Yes! I will go with the help of God.”

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.

Matthew 28:19-20
