

2015 LWML Convention
Post Convention Devotion
"Bountiful! Sow • Nourish • Reap"

After a bountiful harvest, the farmer is tired and weary but extremely satisfied. Is that how you feel as you head home? Take a few moments to reflect. What did you glean from your time in the cornfields?

My favorite convention highlight was: _____

The speaker that touched my heart was: _____

God strengthened my faith by: _____

Read the convention theme from 2 Corinthians 9:8 (NIV) one last time:

And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.

Write down how God's grace abounds in your life: _____

We learn from Paul and the Corinthians that God blesses and equips those He loves. We best express our faith when we share it with others and pass on the gifts God has given to us.

One thing I want to share when I get back home is: _____

You may not have all the answers right now. That's okay. It's all a part of the growing process. Even the cornfields don't spring up overnight. God promises to give each of us the gifts we need for the particular field where we are planted. We can always rely on God's grace each day and know that He will bless the fruit of our labor that His grace may abound even more.

As you return home to your daily routines, make an intentional effort to study God's Word. Continue to pull out the weeds of distraction and give Him your undivided attention. He wants to speak to your heart, help you grow in faith, and equip you to serve in His harvest field. And what a harvest it's going to be!

Lord of the Harvest, thank You again for all that You taught me at the LWML Convention in Des Moines. Continue planting Your Seed in my heart as You help me to cherish Your Word daily. Help me to see opportunities for scattering Your Word far and wide so that others might believe in You and receive the gift of salvation through Your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.
