Apparel Sale on NOW!

The Lutheran Women in Mission tee from the 2023 Convention Store is available for a limited time in this edition of the SHOP Apparel Sale! Also, available for the first time: visors! Don't miss it, this pre-order sale closes Wednesday, May 15!

Shop The Sale
MG#11 Finish the Job in Haiti resources now available

Ministry in Mission, an LCMS RSO, is working with the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Haiti to complete repairs to churches that were damaged by an earthquake in 2021. The $85,000 mission grant will allow the churches to purchase the final items needed so their members can worship in a safe structure. Download resources to share today >

MG#15 Feeding Haitian Children, Trinity HOPE resources available

Trinity HOPE has recognized the country of Haiti as a fertile ground to share the Gospel and nurture bodies, minds, and souls of young children, by providing a noon meal for hungry children in Lutheran schools. This acts as a powerful witness for the Holy Spirit to show that God is loving and cares for His children. Download resources to share today >

Your Commitment Makes a Difference

Did you know that you can automate your giving to be deducted monthly from your credit card, debit card, or bank account? Giving monthly creates a solid foundation for our missions and ensures a future for LWML Mission Grants. Our monthly givers are the cornerstone of LWML.

Set up your giving plan in one of two easy ways:
Click here to fill out the form and set it up yourself

We appreciate your commitment to joyfully proclaiming Christ, supporting missions, and equipping women to honor God by serving others!

Or, give us a call at (314) 505-7508 and we will set up a monthly giving plan for you

Nominations are Open

As you pray about the nomination process and submit names of potential candidates using the information found at lwml.org/nominations, may you always be guided by our mission statement: As Lutheran Women in Mission, we joyfully proclaim Christ, support missions, and equip women to honor God by serving others.

But they kept silent, for on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest. And he sat down and called the twelve. And he said to them, “If anyone would be first, he must be last of all and servant of all” (Mark 9:34–35).

New England District Convention Highlights

Where is God my maker, who gives songs in the night (Job 35:10) was the convention verse and theme, “Songs in the Night,” for the LWML New England District Convention, held at the Marriott Hotel in Trumbull, Connecticut, April 26–27. Dr. June Merwin was elected President. The voting body also approved 20 mission grants with a mission goal of $55,250.

District President Sharon Dever recognized 50 years for the LWML New England District asking those involved for 50 years or more to stand.

LWML Vice President of Communication Kathy Pavelock delivered greetings from the LWML Board of Directors.

Keynote speaker was author, speaker, and musician, Katie Schuermann, who delivered an inspiring message on how songs have lifted her out of dark times in her life. Focus Forum leaders were Katie Schuermann, Rev. Gregory Wismar, Rev. James Kirkava, Gail Clayton, and Kathy Pavelock. Rev. Nathan Erb, from Holy Cross Lutheran Church, Trumbull, Connecticut, led the Saturday Bible studies. Other speakers included Rev. Timothy Sandeno, mission work in Czech Republic and mission plants in Maine; John Rossman, Gbarnga Lutheran Missions; and Rev. Robert Beinke, LCMS New England District President.

Mounds of baby items were collected to benefit the Birthright of Danbury.

First-timers at the New England District Convention

Gulf States District Convention Highlights

The LWML ladies of the Central Alabama Zone planned and hosted the 40th Biennial LWML Gulf States District Convention at the Montgomery Prattville Marriott Hotel and Conference Center. LWML District President Cherie Endrihs opened the convention on April 26. “Return to your Rest,” based on Psalm 116:7, was the theme for the convention.

The Friday night worship service proclaimer was Rev. Eric Johnson, LCMS Southern District President, and the Keynote Speaker was Chaplain Rev. Craig Muehler from LCMS Ministry to the Armed Forces. Other speakers included Michelle Diercks, CPH author of Promised Rest; Erin Alter, Director of Short-term Mission Programs, Rev. Jim Endrihs, Gulf States Pastoral Counselor; Judy Gankens, Gulf States Vice President of Special Focus Ministries. LWML Recording Secretary Brenda Piester represented the LWML and Rev. Dr. McNair Ramsey, First Vice President of the LCMS Southern District, brought greetings.

With great excitement, Jerlean Hudson was appointed as the first Heart to Heart District Leader.

The voting body selected 11 mission grants totaling $45,000.00. An incredible number of baby items were gathered for Swaddling Clothes of Fairhope, Alabama.

English District Convention Highlights

The LWML English District Convention was held from Friday, April 26, through Sunday, April 28, 2024, at the DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel in Dearborn, Michigan. The theme, “All Nations be Glad and Sing for Joy!,” was based on Psalm 67:4, May the nations be glad and sing for joy; for you rule the peoples justly and guide the nations of the earth.

Past LWML Vice President of Special Focus Ministries Kaye Wolff served as the keynote speaker. The convention also included special interest luncheons, Bible studies, servant events, and Gifts from the Heart ingathering for Ellie’s House and Camp Restore Detroit. LCMS English District President Rev. Dr. Jamison Hardy and LCEF Representative Rev. Daniel Lepley brought greetings. Treasurer Anita Werner was in attendance representing LWML.
LWML English District President Carol Klein presided over her first convention as the delegates approved seven mission grants totaling $18,000.