Lutheran Women's Missionary League Style Sheet

2-Minute Tuesday — 2-Minute Tuesdays are an effort to encourage women to share the Good News of Jesus and about LWML in short, non-threatening “pep talks” via email. Each recipient gets an email with helpful tips that take only a short while to read and are sent every other Tuesday.

A

a or an — When using an acronym preceded by “a” or “an,” be guided by the sound of the first letter of the acronym. For example, LCMS sounds like it starts with an “e” so use the article “an” in front of it. Example: Rev. Smith is an LCMS pastor. A CHI staff member joined the meeting. (LCMS Stylebook)

Adviser — not advisor (AP)

Audio Visual Director — As a formal title, capitalize directly preceding the full name. Following the name, it's lowercase. (AP)
Examples: Audio Visual Director John Doe. The audio visual director is Pete Smith.

Archivist-Historian — In AP Style, a hyphen is preferred when linking a job description.

B

biennial, biennium — Lowercase unless using the official name of a biennium or biennial convention. For example: The 37th Biennial Convention of the LWML was held in Albuquerque. But: We approved 18 grants this biennium.

board of directors — Capitalize Lutheran Women's Missionary League Board of Directors or LWML Board of Directors. The abbreviation BOD is acceptable on second reference. Do not capitalize board when not used as part of the official title: The board met to discuss the budget.

bylaws — Capitalize bylaws when referring to the official name: The Bylaws of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League. Use lowercase when using general terms: Our bylaws need to be revised.

C

capitalization — Capitalize district, zone, society, committee, etc., only when part of a proper name. Always capitalize LWML committee and department names. For example:

*The LWML Ohio District hosted the event.
Sally attended the district convention.*

The Christian Life Committee will meet in January.

Each committee should submit a report on its progress.

Refer to individual style entries for capitalization of various terms. See also titles.

catalog — Lowercase unless using the official name: LWML Catalog or Lutheran Women's Missionary League Catalog. But: I can't wait to order from the catalog.

comma in a series — Comma (in serial lists) - the comma will be used in all lists of three or more before the conjunction. Ex. The LWML's focus is on growth in the Word, missions, mites, and fellowship.

composition titles — See italics.

convention — Lowercase except when using the official name. For example: The convention is in June. But: The 36th Biennial Convention of the LWML was held in Des Moines. Put convention themes in quotation marks.

dates — Spell out all months and days of the week. When writing a month, day, and year, place a comma after both the day and the year: The zone rally was held on October 9, 2016, in the sanctuary.

When writing only a month and a year, do not separate with commas: The convention will be in June 2017.

When writing a weekday and date, use commas after both: Bring donations by Sunday, March 12, in order to meet the deadline.

Do NOT use ordinal numbers (i.e. 23rd) in dates.

district — Each district is a subordinate organization of the Lutheran Women’s Missionary League. When referring to a specific district of the LWML, write “LWML” or “Lutheran Women’s Missionary League” preceding the district name (see below). The full title of a district president should be written in the following order: LWML Kansas District President Jane Doe.

Following are the legal names of the LWML districts, which should be preceded by “Lutheran Women’s Missionary League” in official documents.

- LWML Atlantic District
- LWML California-Nevada-Hawaii District

eNews — The subscription-based electronic newsletter produced by the LWML. Note the capitalization of the letter “N.”

events — Capitalize only the official name of an event but not general terms like “zone rally” or “spring workshop.” For example: The zone rally is on Sunday. But: The Mid Coast Zone 2017 Spring Workshop is tomorrow.

eQuarterly — electronic version of the Lutheran Woman’s Quarterly is written without italics.

F

fonts — Because some source file font choices do not print correctly in PDF documents, these recommended universal fonts should be used in Microsoft Word and Excel documents: Arial, Verdana, Helvetica, Times New Roman, Georgia.

flier, flyer — Flier is the preferred term for a person flying on an aircraft or for a handbill. Flyer is the proper name of some trains and buses: The Western Flyer.

G

Graphic Design — Include credit to graphic artist on work; ie. Graphic Design: Jane Doe

Gifts from the Heart — The name for ingatherings at LWML-related events. Do not set off with quotation marks or italics.

H

Heart to Heart Sisters — Do not set off with quotation marks or italics.

I

Interdepartmental (ID) — Annual meeting of the LWML department committees, task forces, and special teams.

Internet — Beginning June 1, 2016, lowercase internet and web. Use the following guidelines for capitalization of other internet-related terms: webcam, webcast, webmaster, webpage, webfeed; the web, web address, web browser.

When writing out a website, do not include the “http://” protocol unless that particular site does not use the “www” prefix. For example: www.lwml.org but http://example.com. If an address breaks between lines, split it directly before a slash, dot, or an appropriate word break; do not insert a hyphen. Web addresses are written italicized but not underlined. Web addresses may be underlined and italicized in digital copy.

See also email, eNews.

italics — Italicize titles of publications such as books, Bible studies, devotions, plays, essays, pamphlets, tracts, and periodicals (including magazines and newspapers). Do not italicize titles of events or organization-specific terms.

When quoting Scripture, the verse is in italics, no quotation marks. The quote marks are used for a quote within the verse. The Scripture verse and version other than ESV are in parentheses with closing period outside of parentheses. For example: And they realized they had been with Jesus. “For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard” (Acts 4:13b, 20 NKJV).

The Bible reference is regular font, in parentheses, within the final punctuation of the sentence. The Book of the Bible can be written out if there is space to do so.

See also quotation marks.

live-stream (n.) and live-streaming (v.) — Broadcasting live events. Livestream is the name of a service that enables organizations to share experiences through live video.

LWML Office — Capitalize when using the official name of the LWML Office in St. Louis.

LWML Store — Capitalize when referring to the official name.

Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, The — The organization’s full name should always be written properly, including The and an em-dash, with no spaces, between the words Church and Missouri: The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod.

The Missouri Synod, the Synod, and the LCMS are acceptable short forms for the church body’s name.

Lutheran Women in Mission — The words “Lutheran Women in Mission” may be used to describe in spoken and written form who we are and what we do.

Lutheran Women’s Missionary League — Use on first reference to the organization in official correspondence and news releases. LWML is acceptable on subsequent references or on first reference only in internal communications. The Lutheran Women’s Missionary League is an integrated auxiliary of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod.

Lutheran Woman’s Quarterly — Italicize name of official publication of the LWML. Quarterly or LWQ are acceptable on second reference. Note that “Woman’s” is singular.

The plural form would never be “Quarterlies.” One could say Lutheran Woman’s Quarterly magazines, or issues of the Lutheran Woman’s Quarterly, or Lutheran Woman’s Quarterly subscriptions. If one wants to use the magazine’s informal name, the plural could be written as LWQs or perhaps Quarterlys. (Please note, in those cases, the letter “s” would not be italicized, but the other letters would be.)

LWML Conventions — The Convention Programming Committee plans the program. Working as a team, the convention Host Committee are the arms and feet that carry out the program.

M

mission grants — Capitalize only when preceded by “LWML”: LWML Mission Grants, Lutheran Women’s Missionary League Mission

Grants: The LWML Mission Grants have been selected. But: The district prays for mission grant recipients.

Mite Box — Capitalize in all instances. No longer a registered trademark of the LWML.

mites — Lowercase in all instances.

multicultural — of, relating to, or representing several different cultures or cultural elements. Use this term rather than ethnic.

Mustard Seed Devotions — Name given to the daily devotions received through email. Mustard Seeds is an acceptable second reference. Capitalize in all instances. Do not set off with quotation marks or italics.

N

news release — Use instead of “press release.”

numbers — Write out the numerals one through nine; use figures for 10 and above. Spell out any number at the beginning of a sentence. Consult The Associated Press Stylebook for rules on ordinal and cardinal numbers.

O

Official Publication Staff — Official name of the committee that produces Lutheran Woman’s Quarterly. (LWML Bylaws) Quarterly Staff also acceptable.

P

punctuation — Use one space between sentences and after colons.

Put one space on each side of an ellipsis (...) and an em dash (—).

Place a period outside a closing parenthesis if the material inside is not a sentence (such as this fragment). (An independent parenthetical sentence such as this one takes a period before the closing parenthesis.) When a phrase placed in parentheses (this one is an example) might normally qualify as a complete sentence but is dependent on the surrounding material, do not capitalize the first word or end with a period. — AP

A hyphen is used to hyphenate two words, never to separate two phrases in a sentence. To separate phrases, an “em” dash — must be used. If the — cannot be located on the keyboard, then a double hyphen -- is acceptable as an alternative. En dashes are used between numbers, as in Luke 2:1–3, which looks different from Luke 2:1-3, and between dates, as in June 1–15, 2016.

hyphen -

“en” dash – (ALT+0150)

“em” dash — (ALT+0151)

See also italics, quotation marks. The Associated Press Stylebook has an extensive Punctuation Guide for additional reference.

Q

quotation marks — Use a comma to introduce a complete one-sentence quotation within a paragraph: The pastor said, “Please turn to the insert in your bulletin.”

Do not use a comma at the start of an indirect or partial quotation: Ruth said she was “fit as a fiddle.”

The period and comma always go within quotation marks. The dash, semicolon, question mark, and exclamation mark go within the quotation marks when they apply to the quoted matter only. They go outside when they apply to the whole sentence. For example: Mary asked, “Where is the party?” But: Who said, “This is most certainly true”?

Put quotation marks around convention themes.

The Associated Press Stylebook has an extensive listing on quotation marks for additional reference.

The name of a magazine never uses “quotation marks.” If italics are not available, the old school way to indicate a magazine’s title is with all caps: LUTHERAN WOMAN’S QUARTERLY.

scripture — When quoting Scripture, the verse is in italics, no quotation marks. The quote marks are used for a quote within the verse. The Scripture verse and version other than ESV are in parentheses with closing period outside of parentheses. For example: And they realized they had been with Jesus. “For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard” (Acts 4:13b, 20 NKJV).

The Bible reference is regular font, in parentheses, within the final punctuation of the sentence. The Book of the Bible can be written out if there is space to do so.

states — When using a state name only, spell out the state. When used with a city name, states should be abbreviated in body copy as follows: (postal code abbreviations in parentheses) See LCMS Stylebook at www.lcms.org for further details.

Ala. (AL)	Md. (MD)	N.D. (ND)

Use the two-letter Postal Service abbreviations only with full addresses, including ZIP code.

times — Use figures except for noon and midnight. In a list or schedule, always use figures. Use lowercase letters and periods for a.m. and p.m. Use a colon to separate hours from minutes, but do not include a colon and two zeros if the time is on the hour: 11 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.
