Lutheran Women in Mission Blog

President Patti Ross launched the Lutheran Women in Mission blog on January 9, 2017. Her new blog will include information on ways to engage, encourage, equip, and enjoy spreading the Word of God. Her first post features photos from her time as President and a mission trip she took to Guatemala.

Please subscribe to the blog by visiting <http://blog.lwml.org>. On the right side bar you will see "subscribe to this blog" and a space to enter your email address. Please enter your email address there and then select "subscribe." Once you subscribe to the blog, you will receive the latest posts from President Patti once every other week in your email inbox.

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) is the official women's auxiliary of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. Since 1942, the LWML has focused on affirming each woman's relationship with Christ, encouraging and equipping women to live out their Christian lives in active mission ministries, and to support global missions.

The LWML is the leading group for LCMS women where each woman is welcomed and encouraged to use her unique God-given gifts as she supports global missions and serves the Lord with gladness.
