We pray you'll make a gift in support of our annual pledge by mail or in person. Checks can be written to "Women's Auxiliary" and if you are unable to attend in person, mailed to Women's Auxiliary Ingathering, c/o Dorothy Surdick, 1977 Flintshire Court, Cincinnati, OH 45230. No gift is too small, save none at all! God loves a cheerful giver and blesses all gifts according to His immeasurable grace.

ç To provide for those precious others, specifically diapers of all sizes that will be distributed to Westfed Food Pantry of Grace Lutheran and Sweet Cheeks, both in Cincinnati and New Hope Center, Crestview Hills, KY. You can bring your donation to St. Mark's the day of Ingathering or collect them at your own church location and distribute to your locally supported outlet.

I personally thank all of you for your prayers and support as together we serve and fellowship as members of LCMS churches in the Cincinnati area and I look forward to gathering with you for this special celebration!

of Hosts is with Us"

November 21st at Messiah from 12:30 to 8:30

PM

This year, the District has decided that instead of having a weekend long, overnight event; there would be 4 mini gatherings in the 4 regions of the Ohio District.

A Bible study, breakouts, community building, snacks and a meal will all happen at all locations! Registration Info: Cost is $50/person. This covers a meal, snacks, and other gathering costs.

Forms and money are due to me by October 11th. Contact Hailey Robertson (dce@messiahgrh.org) for registration form.

Who can register: We have opened up the registration to 7th and 8th graders this year in addition to 9th-12th grades. There will still be a Jr. High Gathering in March of next year.

How are going to keep everyone safe: Only participants who register will be allowed in the building, masks should be worn at all times, temperatures will be checked at entrance, and more which can be found in the registration packet.
