Inviting Someone You Know to church during December - It's the perfect time:

December is a great time to invite someone you know to church. People love coming to Christmas services. In fact it's probably the one time of the year here most people are open to coming to church. Here's a plan for your December invitation:

Pray - Remember to pray for the person you are going to invite. John 14:13-14 says "Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask me anything in my name, I will do it."

Prepare - Rehearse what you are going to say out loud. How will you invite them? Are you going to invite them over to your house after the service? What will you say? It's goes better when you practice out loud. But remember, the Holy Spirit is working through your invite, so be bold!

Invite - Look for the opportunity God will give you and invite them. Remember, people love Christmas services - so Christmas Eve is a wonderful time to invite!

Follow Up - You can share with them why Jesus is important to you - why regular worship is valuable to your life. Follow up is extremely important. Let them know you care for their soul!
