

Week Four - Day 3 Devotions

It's about HIM!

My seven year old son Samuel and I were recently shopping at a local retailer and as a child is apt to do he loudly told me how he needed every little, and big, thing we walked by. He especially liked the light up lightsaber, which we have already, and the four room tent which had both a front and back door! He was proclaiming his great need for a plush couch when I, in my calmest Dad voice, interrupted him telling Sam that it's "not all about him!" His reply was simply, "For me, it's all about me!"

For God it's all about us too. He has worked tirelessly to restore the relationship that sin had destroyed between us and our God. He sent His only Son, Jesus, to live and die on a cross for us. God's actions are all for us.

Our actions, however, should not be all about us. It should be all about the God who has blessed us in so many ways. He has taken care of our needs, especially our need of a savior. We read in Psalm 113:5 "Who is like the Lord our God, the One who sits enthroned on high...?" We know there is no one else like him and as we reflect on yesterday and look to tomorrow we are reminded that He indeed is the God of today! "This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it!" Psalm 118:24

We live in the day that God has made for us. He calls us to use our treasures for Him this day as well. What does that look like for you? As you reflect on God's blessings and His Word for you this day, begin to see how, through your treasures, you can give praise to His Holy name today.

Prayer: God of today, help us to see how your actions are all about us and how we can use the treasures you have given to us for you.
