

“Praise the Lord!”

There are any number of ways that Christians can “praise the Lord!” The Apostle Paul expressed that truth in Colossians 3:17 – “And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.”

How can we do that? How can we “praise the Lord”? In essence, how can we be “living for God today”?

If we back up but one verse in Colossians 3, the answer to our question is provided. What fits us for and enables us to be “living for God today” and to “praise the Lord” is this: “Let the Word of Christ dwell in you richly...”

Today our congregation begins a 4-week journey – “Living for God Today” - with the prayer that we each grow in “living for God today” and in “praising the Lord” with our lives. Please join in the special Bible studies, make use of the daily devotional materials, and come to God’s house each Sunday to hear His Word. Resuming and completing the verse from above, “Let the Word of Christ dwell in you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom, and as you sing psalms, hymns and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God.” Col. 3:16

“Praise the Lord!”

There are any number of ways that Christians can “praise the Lord!” The Apostle Paul expressed that truth in Colossians 3:17 – “And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.”

How can we do that? How can we “praise the Lord”? In essence, how can we be “living for God today”?

If we back up but one verse in Colossians 3, the answer to our question is provided. What fits us for and enables us to be “living for God today” and to “praise the Lord” is this: “Let the Word of Christ dwell in you richly...”

Today our congregation begins a 4-week journey – “Living for God Today” - with the prayer that we each grow in “living for God today” and in “praising the Lord” with our lives. Please join in the special Bible studies, make use of the daily devotional materials, and come to God’s house each Sunday to hear His Word. Resuming and completing the verse from above, “Let the Word of Christ dwell in you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom, and as you sing psalms, hymns and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God.” Col. 3:16