

“Living for God Today!”

Let's frame not only this insert but everything you will hear or read during this time of our congregation's stewardship emphasis with our basic understanding and definition of that word, "stewardship." For us, and within our Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod, this is our definition of stewardship: “Christian stewardship is the free and joyous activity of the child of God and God's family, the Church, in managing all of life and life's resources for God's purposes.”

Behind and beneath that understanding is the grace of God in Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. He is why we can talk about our living for the Lord and our giving to the Lord as being both “the free” and “the joyous activity of the child of God.” In Him we are free to do this, for He came to free us from our sins. And in Him we are filled with joy, for He has come to bring us not only the gift of forgiveness but also the gift of eternal life! Jesus is why we want to “Live for God Today!”

“The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me.”

Galatians 2:20

“Living for God Today!”

Let's frame not only this insert but everything you will hear or read during this time of our congregation's stewardship emphasis with our basic understanding and definition of that word, "stewardship." For us, and within our Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod, this is our definition of stewardship: “Christian stewardship is the free and joyous activity of the child of God and God's family, the Church, in managing all of life and life's resources for God's purposes.”

Behind and beneath that understanding is the grace of God in Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. He is why we can talk about our living for the Lord and our giving to the Lord as being both “the free” and “the joyous activity of the child of God.” In Him we are free to do this, for He came to free us from our sins. And in Him we are filled with joy, for He has come to bring us not only the gift of forgiveness but also the gift of eternal life! Jesus is why we want to “Live for God Today!”

“The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me.”

Galatians 2:20