FOURTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
(PR. 18)

September 10, 2017

Jesus said, “Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven” (Matthew 18:3). It is of great comfort that almighty God treats us as His dear children. As the hymn says, although “He knows how frail our powers,” still “His grace remains forever” and “His rule is over all” (LSB 820:3–4). Yet while we rejoice in God’s tender mercy for us, today’s Readings remind us that God intends that same mercy for those around us, our family, our own children, and our brothers and sisters of the household of God. As John said, “Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another” (1 John 4:11). In other words, we who have received mercy are the very channels and messengers of that same mercy to others. We renounce disgraceful ways that allow sin to drag either ourselves or others down, and we bring God’s merciful forgiveness of sins to everyone.

INVOCATION

CONFESSiON AND ABSOLUTION (Psalm 32:1, 5; Matthew 18:3-4, adapt.)

Blessed is the one whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the Lord,"
and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

Brothers and sisters, we gather together as the baptized children of God. Let us come to Him confessing our need of Him and begging His forgiveness.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, we, Your children, confess to You our waywardness. We have sinned against You in our thoughts, in our words, and in our deeds. We are sinful from birth. We do not deserve Your love. Yet by Your own Gospel promise we dare to come before You imploring Your grace. Forgive us our sins, gather us as Your own children, and give us Your love and life. Amen.

"Unless you turn and become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven. Whoever humbles himself like a child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven." Upon this your confession and prayer, I, as a called and ordained servant of Christ and by His authority, forgive you all your sins, in the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

OPENING HYMN

Joyful, Joyful We Adore Thee

Tune: Hymn to Joy (551)

Joyful, joyful we adore Thee, God of glory, Lord of love!
Hearts unfold like flow'rs before Thee, Praising Thee, their sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness, Drive the gloom of doubt away.
Giver of immortal gladness, Fill us with the light of day.

All Thy works with joy surround Thee, Earth and heav'n reflect Thy rays, Stars and angels sing around Thee, Center of unbroken praise.
Field and forest, vale and mountain, Flow'ry meadow, flashing sea,
Chanting bird, and flowing fountain Call us to rejoice in Thee.

Thou art giving and forgiving, Ever blessing, ever blest,
Wellspring of the joy of living, Ocean-depth of happy rest!
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, Fountainhead of love divine:
Joyful, we Thy heav'n inherit! Joyful, we by grace are Thine!

Congregation

The musical notation consists of two staves of music. The top staff is labeled "Refrain" and "S 187". The lyrics for the first part are: "This is the feast of vic - t'ry for our God, for the". The bottom staff continues the lyrics: "Lamb who was slain has be - gun his reign. Al - le - lu - ia." The music is in common time with a treble clef.

Cantor: Worthy is Christ, the Lamb who was slain, whose blood set us free to be people of God. Power, riches, wisdom, and strength, and honor, blessing, and glory are his.

Refrain

Cantor: Sing with all the people of God, and join in the hymn of all creation: Blessing, honor, glory, and might be to God and the Lamb forever. Amen.

Ezekiel 33:7-9

The prophet's responsibility to warn the people.

So you, mortal, I have made a sentinel for the house of Israel; whenever you hear a word from my mouth, you shall give them warning from me. If I say to the wicked, “O wicked ones, you shall surely die,” and you do not speak to warn the wicked to turn from their ways, the wicked shall die in their iniquity, but their blood I will require at your hand. But if you warn the wicked to turn from their ways, and they do not turn from their ways, the wicked shall die in their iniquity, but you will have saved your life. (NRSV)

P S A L M 3 2 : 1 - 7 (antiphon v. 1)

Tone 1

Cantor: Blesséd is the one whose transgression is for- | given,* whose sin is | covered.

Cantor: Blesséd is the man against whom the Lord counts no in- | iquity,* and in whose spirit there is | no deceit.

For when I kept silent, my bones wast- | ed away* through my groaning | all day long.

Cantor: For day and night your hand was heavy up- | on me,* my strength was dried up as by the heat of | summer.

I acknowledged my sin to you, and I did not cover my in- | iquity;* I said, “I will confess my transgressions to the Lord,” and you forgave the iniquity | of my sin.

Cantor: Therefore let everyone who is godly offer prayer to you at a time when you | may be found;* surely in the rush of great waters, they shall not | reach him.

You are a hiding place for me; you preserve me from | trouble;* you surround me with shouts of de- | liverance.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son* and to the Holy | Spirit;
As it was in the be- | ginning,* is now, and will be forever. | Amen.

Cantor: Blesséd is the one whose transgression is for- | given,* whose sin is | covered.

SECOND LESSON

Romans 13:1-10

Our responsibilities to civil authorities.

Let every person be subject to the governing authorities; for there is no authority except from God, and those authorities that exist have been instituted by God. Therefore whoever resists authority resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgment. For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Do you wish to have no fear of the authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive its approval; for it is God's servant for your good. But if you do what is wrong, you should be afraid, for the authority does not bear the sword in vain! It is the servant of God to execute wrath on the wrongdoer. Therefore one must be subject, not only because of wrath but also because of conscience. For the same reason you also pay taxes, for the authorities are God's servants, busy with this very thing. Pay to all what is due them—taxes to whom taxes are due, revenue to whom revenue is due, respect to whom respect is due, honor to whom honor is due. Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not covet"; and any other commandment, are summed up in this word, "Love your neighbor as yourself." Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law. (NRSV)

Matthew 18:1-20

Who is the greatest?

The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the eighteenth chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord! (shouted)

At that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?” He called a child, whom he put among them, and said, “Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. Whoever becomes humble like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me. If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were fastened around your neck and you were drowned in the depth of the sea. Woe to the world because of stumbling blocks! Occasions for stumbling are bound to come, but woe to the one by whom the stumbling block comes! If your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away; it is better for you to enter life maimed or lame than to have two hands or two feet and to be thrown into the eternal fire. And if your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out and throw it away; it is better for you to enter life with one eye than to have two eyes and to be thrown into the hell of fire. Take care that you do not despise one of these little ones; for, I tell you, in heaven their angels continually see the face of my Father in heaven. For the Son of Man came to save the lost. What do you think? If a shepherd has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go in search of the one that went astray? And if he finds it, truly I tell you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that never went astray. So it is not the will of your Father in heaven that one of these little ones should be lost. If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone. If the member listens to you, you have regained that one. But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses. If the member refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church, let such a one be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector. Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven. Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them.” (NRSV)

My Soul, Now Praise Your Maker!
st. 1—cantor

Green 519

Cantor: My soul, now praise your maker! Let all within me bless his name
Who makes you full partaker Of mercies more than you dare claim.
Forget him not whose meekness Still bears with all your sin,
Who heals your ev'ry weakness, Renews your life within;
Whose grace and care are endless And saved you through the past;
Who leaves no suff'rer friendless, But rights the wronged at last.

He offers all his treasure Of justice, truth, and righteousness,
His love beyond our measure, His yearning pity o'er distress;
Nor treats us as we merit, But sets his anger by.
The poor and contrite spirit Finds his compassion nigh;
And high as heav'n above us, As break from close of day,
So far, since he has loved us, He puts our sins away.

For as a loving mother Has pity on her children here,
God in his arms will gather All those who him like children fear.
He knows how frail our powers, Who but from dust are made.
We flourish as the flowers, And even so we fade;
The wind but o'er them passes, And all their bloom is o'er.
We wither like the grasses; Our place knows us no more.

His grace remains forever, And children's children yet shall prove
That God forsakes them never Who in true fear shall seek his love.
In heav'n is fixed his dwelling, His rule is over all;
You hosts with might excelling, With praise before him fall.
Praise him forever reigning, All here who hear his Word
Our life and all sustaining. My soul, oh, praise the Lord!

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. On the third day He rose again. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

MUSIC AT OFFERING

Forgive Our Sins As We Forgive

Choir

text Rosamond E. Herklots, setting Nancy M. Raabe

“Forgive our sins as we forgive,” you taught us, Lord, to pray;
But you alone can grant us peace to live the words we say.
How can you pardon reach and bless the unforgiving heart
That broods on wrongs and will not let old bitterness depart?
In blazing light your cross reveals the truth we dimly knew;
How trifling other’s debts to us; how great our debt to you!
Lord, cleanse the depths within our souls and bid resentment cease;
Then, by your mercy reconciled, our lives will spread your peace.

OFFERING PRAYER

Blessed are you,

O Lord our God, maker of all things. Through your goodness you have blessed us with these gifts. With them we offer ourselves to your service and dedicate our lives to the care and redemption of all that you have made, for the sake of him who gave himself for us, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAEFACTE

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, . . . we praise your name, and join their unending hymn:

The King of Love My Shepherd Is

Green 456

The King of love my shepherd is, Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am his And he is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow, My ransomed soul he leadeth
And, where the verdant pastures grow, With food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed, But yet in love he sought me,
And on his shoulder gently laid, And home, rejoicing, brought me.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill, With thee, dear Lord, beside me, Thy rod and staff my comfort still; Thy cross before to guide me.

Thou spreadst a table in my sight; Thine unction grace bestoweth;
And, oh, what transport of delight From thy pure chalice floweth!

And so, through all the length of days, Thy goodness faileth never.
Good Shepherd, may I sing thy praise Within thy house forever.

Where Charity and Love Prevail

Green 126

Where charity and love prevail, There God is ever found;
Brought here together by Christ's love, By love we thus are bound.

With grateful joy and holy fear, God's charity we learn;
Let us with heart and mind and soul Now love God in return.

Let us recall that in our midst Dwells Christ, God's holy Son;
As members of each body joined, In him we are made one.

Let strife among us be unknown; Let all contentions cease.
Be God's the glory that we seek; Be his our only peace.

For love excludes no race or clan That names the Savior's name;
His family embraces all Whose Father is the same.

We now forgive each other's faults As we our own confess,
That we may love each other well In Christian gentleness.
