21st Sunday After Pentecost

October 18, 2015

We all agree that certain things can be difficult to do and other things impossible. It is only slightly difficult, but not impossible, to get used to where all the controls are on a new car. Even more difficult, but still not impossible, is to drive that new car through fog. On the other hand, there are no degrees of the impossible. If something is impossible, that is it. Certainly some people thought it impossible that Thomas Edison's lightbulb would ever replace candles or that Henry Ford's automobile would ever replace the horse. But in those cases, the possible was just a little more difficult to produce. When it comes to entering the kingdom of God and salvation, many wrongly think it is possible by your own reason, strength, or works. Today, Jesus reminds us that on our own, salvation is actually impossible for everyone. "But with God all things are possible." Every baptized Christian is a walking, talking miracle of God's creation and re-creation! Thus following Jesus and living the Christian life is not impossible. Thanks be to God!

GATHERING

We Enter God's Presence.

INVOCATION

OPENING SENTENCES (Hebrews 4:7; Psalm 119:10; Mark 10:24, 27; Psalm 124:8)

Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts.

With my whole heart I seek You.

How difficult it is to enter the kingdom of God!

But all things are possible with God.

Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

Beloved, let us confess our sin, our weakness, and our need of God's help.

Almighty God, I confess to You all my sins and my complete inability to redeem myself in Your sight. I am by nature sinful, and I have sinned and fallen short of Your glory. You have done what is impossible for me on my own. For the sake of Your Son, our Savior, Jesus Christ, forgive me of my sin.

With man it is impossible, but not with God. As a called and ordained servant of Christ, and by His authority, I announce the grace of God unto all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

GATHERING HYMN

O Day of Rest and Gladness

Green 251

O day of rest and gladness, O day of joy and light,
O balm for care and sadness, Most beautiful, most bright:
On you the high and lowly, Through ages joined in tune,
Sing, "Holy, holy, holy," To the great God triune.

On you, at earth's creation, The light first had its birth;
On you, for our salvation, Christ rose from depths of earth;
On you, our Lord victorious The Spirit sent from heav'n;
And thus on you, most glorious, A three-fold light was giv'n.

Today on weary nations The heav'nly manna falls;
To holy convocations The silver trumpet calls,
Where Gospel light is glowing With pure and radiant beams
And living water flowing With soul refreshing streams.

New graces ever gaining From this our day of rest,
We reach the rest remaining To spirits of the blest.
To Holy Ghost be praises, To Father, and to Son;
The Church its voice upraises To you, blest Three in One.

APOSTOLIC GREETING

KYRIE

Cantor: In peace, let us pray to the Lord.

Cantor: For the peace from above, and for our salvation, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

Cantor: For the peace of the whole world, for the well-being of the church of God, and for the unity of all, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

Cantor: For this holy house, and for all who offer here their worship and praise, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

Cantor: Help, save, comfort, and defend us, gracious Lord.

WORD

We Hear God's Word.

FIRST LESSON

Ecclesiastes 5:10-20

Find enjoyment in your lot in life.

The lover of money will not be satisfied with money; nor the lover of wealth, with gain. This also is vanity. When goods increase, those who eat them increase; and what gain has their owner but to see them with his eyes? Sweet is the sleep of laborers, whether they eat little or much; but the surfeit of the rich will not let them sleep. There is a grievous ill that I have seen under the sun: riches were kept by their owners to their hurt, and those riches were lost in a bad venture; though they are parents of children, they have nothing in their hands. As they came from their mother's womb, so they shall go again, naked as they came; they shall take nothing for their toil, which they may carry away with their hands. This also is a grievous ill: just as they came, so shall they go; and what gain do they have from toiling for the wind? Besides, all their days they eat in darkness, in much vexation and sickness and resentment. This is what I have seen to be good: it is fitting to eat and drink and find enjoyment in all the toil with which one toils under the sun the few days of the life God gives us; for this is our lot. Likewise all to whom God gives wealth and possessions and whom he enables to enjoy them, and to accept their lot and find enjoyment in their toil—this is the gift of God. For they will scarcely brood over the days of their lives, because God keeps them occupied with the joy of their hearts.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God! (shouted)

PSALM 119:9-16 (antiphon, v. 14)

Tone 6

Cantor: In the way of your testimonies | I delight* as much as in all | riches.

Cantor: How can a young man keep his | way pure?* By guarding it according | to your word.

With my whole heart I | seek you;* let me not wander from your com- | mandments!

Cantor: I have stored up your word | in my heart,* that I might not sin a- | gainst you.

Blesséd are you, | O Lord;* teach me your | statutes!

Cantor: With my lips | I declare* all the just decrees | of your mouth.

In the way of your testimonies | I delight* as much as in all | riches.

Cantor: I will meditate on your | precepts* and fix my eyes | on your ways.

I will delight in your | statutes;* I will not for- | get your word.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son* and to the Holy | Spirit;

As it was in the be- | ginning,* is now, and will be forever. | Amen.

Cantor: In the way of your testimonies | I delight* as much as in all | riches.

SECOND LESSON

Hebrews 4:1-13 (14-16)

There remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God.

Therefore, while the promise of entering his rest is still open, let us take care that none of you should seem to have failed to reach it. For indeed the good news came to us just as to them; but the message they heard did not benefit them, because they were not united by faith with those who listened. For we who have believed enter that rest, just as God has said, “As in my anger I swore, “They shall not enter my rest,”” though his works were finished at the foundation of the world. For in one place it speaks about the seventh day as follows, “And God rested on the seventh day from all his works.” And again in this place it says, “They shall not enter my rest.” Since therefore it remains open for some to enter it, and those who formerly received the good news failed to enter because of disobedience, again he sets a certain day—‘today’—saying through David much later, in the words already quoted, “Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts.” For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not speak later about another day. So then, a sabbath rest still remains for the people of God; for those who enter God's rest also cease from their labors as God did from his. Let us therefore make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one may fall through such disobedience as theirs. Indeed, the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account. [Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.]

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God! (shouted)

Mark 10:23-31

Worldly wealth can hinder entering the kingdom of God.

The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the tenth chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord! (shouted)

Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." They were greatly astounded and said to one another, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible." Peter began to say to him, "Look, we have left everything and followed you." Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields, with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You, O Christ! (shouted).

st. 3 - left side, st. 4 - right side

Hope of the world, thou Christ of great compassion:

Speak to our fearful hearts by conflict rent.

Save us, thy people, from consuming passion,

Who by our own false hopes and aims are spent.

Hope of the world, God's gift from highest heaven,
Bringing to hungry souls the bread of life:
Still let thy Spirit unto us be given
To heal earth's wounds and end our bitter strife.

*Left: Hope of the world, afoot on dusty highways,
Showing to wand'ring souls the path of light:
Walk thou beside us lest the tempting byways
Lure us away from thee to endless night.*

*Right: Hope of the world, who by thy cross didst save us
From death and dark despair, from sin and guilt:
We render back the love thy mercy gave us;
Take thou our lives and use them as thou wilt.*

Hope of the world, O Christ, o'er death victorious,
Who by this sign didst conquer grief and pain:
We would be faithful to thy Gospel glorious;
Thou art our Lord! Thou dost forever reign!

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell.
On the third day He rose again. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.
