A very wise man once said, "Evil triumphs when good people do nothing."

We have seen over the past several years, an increasing danger developing in the area of occult activities. Many major law enforcement agencies have even established Occult-Related Ritualistic Crime Departments. Drug cults, the disappearances of children, and the occult have, in numerous cases, been investigatively associated. Therefore, many of us in law enforcement have sensed a need for credible, reliable, understandable, layman-level information on this subject.

I am concerned about the protection of the citizens of our area. Awareness through education on any level of dubious activities is the correct place to begin. Providing you with this copy of What They Do Not Want You To Know is our grass roots effort to provide insight into this area of concern.

The information contained in this publication is graphic. However, it is not nearly as graphic as some of the crime scenes various agencies have in their files. The content is basic and sufficient to give you an idea of what we are facing with this growing phenomenon.

The unholy alliance of illegal drugs and the occult is very real. Please take the time to read this publication. And please do not hesitate to report any suspicious activities or involvements in this regard. Your help in identifying deviant behavior is needed and welcomed. We must work together for an illegal drug-free and occult-free community.

Your Chairman,

Joe Evans

In every state in the nation there are reports and ongoing investigations of Satanic crimes. Even though the documentation is staggering, the following material is not intended to sensationalize, to glamorize, or to encourage participation in Satanism. People who are involved in this ever growing phenomenon need no unnecessary attention given to their bizarre activities. However, those who desire to uphold the values upon which America was founded must absolutely come to full alert to the obvious danger of Satanic cult activity in order to stop, or at least to curtail the perversion of this deadly serious organization. To put it bluntly, "We are at war.... within our own borders."

In order to have a clear understanding, two ground rules should precede the various sections of this magazine. First, the reality of the subject matter necessitates graphic detail in order to communicate the horror of this epidemic which is consuming our country. Second, the reader must take every detail seriously for the sake of their families and personal well-being. Although the facts will be difficult to comprehend, and certainly are not comprehensive, please do not reject the truth that the following pages offer. 'Evil prevails because good people hide their heads in the sand.'

Consequently, as you read, the question may arise, "How could technologically sophisticated people bordering on the 1990's believe and practice such incredible activities...let alone, worship the 'god' behind them?" this is what makes the 'handles' so hard to grasp. Satanism is completely subjective.

However, it really makes no difference what one believes about Satanism. The people who are involved in this form of worship DO fervently believe in it, and their religious practices are having an awesome effect on society as a whole. No place is safe...nothing is untouched. It's a fact! We must face it, and immediately deal with the results!

Therefore, it is the deep conviction of Michael Paul and Associates, along with Kerruso Publications, that this material will help to inform and arm the public, especially the church who holds the key to prevention, and law enforcement agencies who pick up the pieces when prevention does not occur. It is essential that these two entities attempt to work in a very close knit effort. The atrocities surrounding Satanism and Witchcraft must be 'shouted from the rooftops' so that men, women and children can have some degree of safety in their lives.

THEY TOLD US...THEY ARE STILL TELLING US, AND IT'S TIME WE DO BELIEVE THEM!!

WHO THEY ARE

THE NEW AGE

Due to the recent rise of Satan activity in America, people have a tendency to think this form of worship began only recently. However, the facts prove otherwise. Experts in the occult have believed and taught for years that Satanism and Witchcraft are the oldest traceable forms of religion in the world.

However, the 'flood-gate' is not open to communicate the complex and destructive messages contained in these beliefs like no other time in history. Why? We are the most technologically advanced generation to ever walk the earth.

According to statistics that scream to be heard, many young people have made pacts with the Devil to sell their own souls. This is not a new concept. It just gets around faster in our time, and with a much younger target.

Are there really people who worship Satan as the ultimate power of the universe? Yes

Are there really witches who practice magic, cast spells or hexes today? Yes

There are increasing numbers of teenagers who have actually joined in oaths to kill their parents, one another, or themselves. Some have kept their word, and a grisly trail of occult-related crimes and suicides leaves nothing but the truth.

Is it fad or future? Believe them! It is NOT fad. For the most part, Satanists are seldom deranged individuals with no ___ or ___ ___. They ___ a highly organized and heavily funded group of intelligent people and ___ ___ ___ strange ___ that what they are doing brings good in them. In fact ___ satanists are presently coming forth to ___ their deeds are good in ___ ___ ___

The FACTS have driven ministers, law enforcement ___, counselors, therapists and parents in nearly every state in the nation to uncover stacks of articles, to assemble mounds of reports, and to experience an incredible number of eyewitness interviews concerning rapidly surfacing underground of extremely dangerous cults.

Please note. There is a difference between Satanists and Witchcraft. Practicing witches adamantly disavow being called Satanists. On the other hand, serious Satanists deny that they are evil and demand that Satanism does not ever worship the Devil, except as a principle of self-indulgence. These differences only serve to cloud the issue. The 'bottom line' is the same. Devil Worship.

In order to simplify these highly complex belief systems, an examination of three distinct levels is suggested.

SATANISM: THE SOPHISTICATED LEVEL

SATANISM: THE SERIOUS LEVEL

SATANISM: THE SELF-STYLED LEVEL

MOVEMENT

It would be an understatement to say that New Age thinking is extremely difficult to grasp. Its tentacles are global. Its participants are high level executives, political leaders, successful entertainers, educators, professionals, and people who would never personally claim to be Satanists.

According to many of the New Age messiahs, a definition of 'the movement' is most perplexing to put into a concise expression. This is certainly understandable since New age concepts are seen in the pursuit of pagan religions, in the interest of Eastern philosophies or in the occult, involvement in channeling, crystals, reincarnation, divination and other psychic phenomena.

The New Age Catalogue, published by Island Publishing Company in 1988, gives guides and resources for finding information on channeling, divination, astrology, tarot, palmistry, oracles, astro-travel, transcendental meditation, spiritism, and many other forms of metaphysics.

Basically, The New Age Movement advocates a one world government, religion, and economic system. 'The movement' is obviously Satan's plan for a centralized approach to worship with himself at the center. It is a universal; approach done in the name of peace that sounds good at first, then drowns its weaker followers in the sea of human need.

From witches to humanists; from religionists to scientists, THE NEW AGE MOVEMENT is the Sophisticated Level of Satanism.

To New Agers, God is an impersonal force who resided in Mother Earth, the sun, the moon, the stars and all of nature. In other words, nature can be worshipped.

Jesus, Buddha, Mohammed, Confucius, and many others are frequently called Ascended Masters, or masters of the Universe. Heaven is not distinguished, and hell does not exist.

These, and a literal barrage of New Age principles have operated popular entertainment mediums such as the Star Wars Trilogy, He-Man, Master of the Universe cartoons and toys, E.T., the Ninja movies, Raiders of the Lost Ark, and a host of others that deal with magic, such as Excalibur, Merlin, Conan, and Sci-Fi's.

Neighborhood video stores dispense tapes with New

Age concepts in such volume that main stream society is deadened to the grave truth that destructive mental images seldom go away.

Once the mind is modified through conditioning to believe that fantasy is reality, a loss of control is inevitable. It has been said that what one generation allows in moderation, the next will practice in excess.

This level of Satanism is zealous and aggressive.

Bringing in a 'NEW WORLD ORDER' is heart of the plan. New Agers strongly believe and teach that ALL paths lead to God. Even the worship of Satan himself. There is a conspiracy. The network to effect the goals of this conspiracy is in place and

They are convinced that the murder of a standard moral code is an act of love for the planet. This plan for global oneness is Satan's perverse counterfeit for true spiritual unity.

The New Age Movement has definitely infiltrated basic morality, and is most certainly becoming the fastest growing movement on the earth.

"BUZZ WORDS" TO IDENTIFY NEW AGE:
Mother Earth; Self-Transformation; Spirit Guide; Psychic Energy; Meditation; Self-Hypnosis; Mind Power; Aura; Body Rainbow; Crystals; Astrology; Zodiac Signs; The Tarot; palmistry; Channeling; Inner Path; Visualization; Karma; Subliminal Programming; Astral Projection; Rebirthing; Reincarnation; Spiritualism; Holistic Health; Psychic Surgery; Acupuncture; Yoga; Community; The Planetary Agencies; UFO; and

These concepts all connect to the Earth Goddess in some way. They tend to 'tie in' to the natural power of the planet to give and take energy, or even life. In other words, the planet is God, and the rest the luminaries are other gods.

For a simple test, just listen to how many of these words and the meaning behind them have infiltrated modern through and action with no almost no Reaction

LOOK FOR IT!The New Age Doctrine is expressed in these basic areas:

- Occultism (The mysterious, hidden, secret)
- Eastern Mysticism (Hinduism, Buddhism, Kabbalism, etc.)
- Science and Technology (computers, weapons, space)
- Entertainment (Music, books, T.V., movies, videos)
- Psychology/Mind Power (Positive Thinking as Reality)
- Self Gratification (Sex, Drugs, Pleasure, Comfort)
- Evolution (Theory of Creation taught as fact)
- Pantheism (Worshipping the Planet as God)
- Demolish (Spiritism)

whatsoever.

The tentacles of this level of thinking have filtered down to deeply penetrate behavior. For example. Due to the popular teaching of reincarnation, some youth have begun to believe that if they do not like their current circumstances...just 'check out', and try again. Many are doing just that. SUICIDE!

Dateline, April 12, 1989. The San Antonio Journal headlines read as follows. WITCH'S WAY - LACKLAND AIR FORCE BASE ALLOWS WOMAN TO OBSERVE HER HOLIDAYS. (AP) "A witch who works as a physical therapist at a military base will be able to observe eight holidays in her belief after receiving permission from Air Force official." this is only one headline of literally hundreds dating back only to 1985.

Witchcraft could now be defined as an aggressive Neopagan movement (explained later). It is the worship of the "Old Religion". In fact, many boast that witchcraft is the oldest form of religion in the world.

This "Old Religion" has many focuses, but its primary center is the Great Goddess in her many forms: Artemis, Astarte, Aphrodite, Diana, and Hecate. If one is a parent, it might be a surprising challenge to sit for at least two hours on a single Saturday morning and see how many of the above names are the central characters or bit players in the majority of what many think to be simple cartoons.

In modern witchcraft, the women, rather than the men, play the dominant role. This quite clearly explains the drawing power of a coven to an emotionally vulnerable yet highly intellectual female. Members of the coven regularly meet at sabbats (see glossary) to perform seasonal rituals. Womens' involvement also explains why people in general witchcraft normally do not sacrifice cats. They believe that felines are the best lodging place for familiar spirits, the demons who predict the future for a single witch or an entire coven.

A meeting of a witches' coven is held in order to perform magical rites and ceremonies. During the sabbat, a large number of witches and warlocks (male witches) will gather around a bonfire or cauldron, light black candles, and perform sacrifices. Sabbats usually culminate in sexual orgies as a religious expression.

In the "Old Religion," a coven would have a membership of thirteen people; six women, six men, and one high priestess. But, now it seems that covens do not necessarily have a specific numerical membership and that groups of witches gather in various numbers according to the nature of the hexes, spells, and rituals they desire to perform and the power they feel they need to accomplish their purpose.

The average person usually thinks of witches only when Halloween rolls around. Most believe there is no harm in celebrating Halloween with witches, devils, monsters, and ghosts. The Halloween controversy will be addressed in the section WHEN DO THEY DO IT which will follow.

There are thousands of covens throughout the United States, and each group either makes up their own incantations, or draws from a rigid code of spells laid out by witches centuries ago. These groups usually fall into two categories: white and black witchcraft.

One thing that cannot be over-emphasized is that dedicated 'black magic' witches make no distinction between good and evil, and their motto is "the end justifies the means", no matter what the cost or what they must do to carry out their desires. NO MATTER WHAT THE COST!

WICCA

Wicca and Witchcraft are actually one and the same by the very nature of the root meaning and evolution of the word witch. Witch is derived from the Old English word 'wicca.' It was pronounced 'witcha.'

It would be putting it mildly to say that Wiccans do not like to be called Satanists. Nevertheless, from the Sophisticated Level Satanism there can be no doubt that their practices have one ultimate goal in mind.

The Wicca or white witches are usually pagan (a form of witchcraft) by style, and their ceremonies are done to align themselves with nature. Wiccans are typically well-versed about herbs, and if the police happened upon a ritual taking place, they would probably find herbs, censers, a chalice, salt containers, and a ceremonial knife called an athame. If other items should exist like a white or black handled knife, cords, a pentagram and a book of shadows, red robes used for sexual rituals and black robes used for other types of sacrificial rituals - it could be a dangerous mixture.

In addition, if any of these things exist in any part of your home under the guise of schoolwork or some club activity, get suspicious and ask questions. The following statement about WICCA is a warning put out by The Texas Department of Public Safety. Its contents are very concise and understandable.

THE SOPHISTICATED LEVEL

THE SEVEN W.I.C.C.A. LETTERS

The Witches International Coven Council

Association (a modern acrostic), a coalition of witches formed to try to establish unity and coordination between diverse groups of witches and to reconcile the white, gray, and black witchcraft movements, established a comprehensive list of seven goals in their 1981 W.I.C.C.A. Convention in Mexico. Sheriff Dave Gaerin, San Diego S.O. originally developed the information which was then used as the basis for an article in the PASSPORT MAGAZINE SPECIAL EDITION, herein quoted: "...they clearly and boldly outline the seriousness of their intentions.

1. To bring about the covens, both black and white magic, into one and have the access to govern all - ACCOMPLISHED.
2. To bring about personal debts causing discord and disharmony within families - ACCOMPLISHED
3. To remove or educate the "new age youth" by:
  - a. infiltrating boys/girls/ clubs and big brother/sister programs.
  - b. infiltrating schools, having prayer removed, having teachers teach about sex, drugs, and freedoms.
  - c. instigating and promoting rebellion against parents and all authority.
  - d. promoting equal rights for youth and children. - ALL OF THESE HAVE BEEN ACCOMPLISHED
4. To gain access to all people's backgrounds and vital information by:
  - a. use of computers,
  - b. convenience of relationship
  - c. infiltration of masses entertainment - education - labor unions.... ACCOMPLISHED
5. To have laws changed to benefit our ways, such as:
  - a. removing children from the home environment and placing them in our foster homes.
  - b. mandatory placement of children in our day care centers
  - c. increased taxes
  - d. open drug and pornography market to everyone...NOT YET ACCOMPLISHED
6. To destroy government agencies by:
  - a. overspending,
  - b. public opinion
  - c. being on the offensive always, opposing, demonstrating, and demoralizing NOT YET ACCOMPLISHED
7. (The seventh letter was not revealed until the Summer Solstice, June 21, 1986. Sheriff Gaerin has been able to determine part of this letter, namely, that covens are sanctioned to abduct and sacrifice human adults or children on the 24th of each month for the next eleven years, at which time they expect to be in total control. this amounts to new and unifying emphasis on blood-letting rituals.)

THE CHURCH OF SATAN

On the night of April, 30, 1966, Anton Szandor LaVey officially began the Church of Satan in his own home in San Francisco, Calif. The idea for an organized church, which would be protected by law, apparently came from the suggestion of a police inspector friend

There are various styles of witchcraft:

Alexandrian witchcraft - Alex Sanders
Classic - European; healing with herbs and spells
Ethnic - Santeria; Brujuria; Voodoo
Familial - Practices passed down in families
Pagan - First attempt to control environment through gods
Neo Pagan - Centered on Moon Goddess; Earth; Horned Sun; etc.
Feminist - Using The Goddess for inspiration; mind power; magic Gardnerian - The origin of Neo Pagan (1940-50)
Gothic - Satanists who used Christianity to rape torture, etc.
Shamanic - The beliefs and practices of Moon Goddess cults.
Druid - Worshipped the sun; reincarnation; astrologers
Crowleyism - The link between the Old Religion and The Beast

Covens and black witches regularly sacrifice dogs and other animals on demonic holy days. Human sacrifice also reportedly takes place, and this is approved of in witchcraft circles where members are given honor for committing heinous and unfathomable crimes.

Some practitioners of Wicca boast that their 'craft' is centuries who had been part of LaVey's "Magic Circle" cult. It was reported that this man believed that LaVey's knowledge and philosophy of life could be the basis for a new religion.

The April 30 date for the founding of the Satanic Church coincides with a major occult holiday, Walpurgis (See calendar). This was traditionally a time for 'pagan' festivals involving demons, witches and orgies.

(It is interesting to note that Adolph Hitler committed suicide on the same day, April 30, in 1945. It has been clearly documented that Hitler's practice of 'the black arts' was vital to the existence of the Third Reich. Walpurgis is perhaps the most important date in the entire calendar of Satanism).

LaVey, after performing the initiatory ritual to begin the new church, shaved his head and declared the year to be I Anno Satanas - the year that Satan regained the earth. He openly declared The Church of Satan to be a true vehicle for the expression of Black Magic.

In 1967 the Church of Satan was accepted as a bona fide religion. This acceptance was further recognized when a U.S. Navy seaman, who was a member of the church, died and requested a satanic funeral. A full Navy honor guard was present as LaVey officiated in his black priestly garb. Shortly thereafter, complete legitimacy was gained when the U.S. Government provided its chaplains with a handbook that described the religious needs for members of the armed forces who were part of the Church of Satan.

Today, Satanism is not only full accepted, but deeply entrenched in the military by policies that prevent religious discrimination.

Anton LaVey became known as 'The Black Pope' throughout the country. Because of his association with such entertainers as Jayne Mansfield, Sammy Davis, Jr., and numerous others he was considered to be somewhat of a celebrity. However, he was deadly serious about Satanism and its related way of life, consequently, he became more withdrawn from the public eye and the press almost daily.

This is not a man who came up with a 'gimmick' in order to have his fifteen minutes of fame. LaVey is completely given to the advance of the kingdom of darkness, and his influence is even more treacherous today.

Because of the publicity, the church had a variety of problems during its first year. Namely, other individuals, and groups practicing the occult began committing crimes in the name of LaVey and The Church of Satan. Ritual child abuse and torture were done to spread the church's message and to honor its founder.

This and other events led LaVey to complete the most important work ever performed to penetrate the heart of America with Satanism. In 1968, only two years after the founding of The Satanic Church, he developed his philosophy into book form and The Satanic Bible was born.

The ethical and moral stance of the Church of Satan can be summarized in the Nine Satanic Statements found in the beginning of the book.

In 1975, various high ranking members of The Church of Satan became displeased with what they perceived to be a different direction for the Church. They believed they were beginning to have too high of a profile in the media. Consequently, they believed that ego was beginning to override the churches' mission. Several split from the Church and formed their own SERIOUS groups. It was during this time that The Temple of Set was founded by Dr. Michael Aquino.

THE TEMPLE OF SET

On the night of June 21, 1975, after conjuring up the Prince of Darkness through a series of complex ceremonial procedures, Michael Aquino sat down and wrote The Book of Coming Forth by Night.

He also claimed that Satan revealed his true name as Set, and stated that 'the age of Satan' was over and the 'age of Set' was to begin. This was his formal break with The Church of Satan, and his official word to begin The Temple of Set.

The membership of The Temple of Set is decisively

THE NINE SATANIC STATEMENTS

1. Satan represents indulgence instead of abstinence!
2. Satan represents vital existence, instead of spiritual pipe dreams!
3. Satan represents undefiled wisdom, instead of hypocritical self-deceit!
4. Satan represents kindness to those who deserve it, instead of love wasted on ingrates!
5. Satan represents vengeance instead of turning the other cheek!
6. Satan represents responsibility to the responsible, instead of concern for psychic vampires!
7. Satan represents man as just another animal, sometimes better, sometimes worse than those that walk on all-fours, who, because of his "divine spiritual and intellectual development," has become the most viscous animal of all!
8. Satan represents all of the so-called sins, as they all lead to physical, mental or emotional gratification.
9. Satan has been the best friend the church has ever had, and has kept it in business all these years!

smaller due to the high intellectual standards necessary to join. The basic reading list is extremely board and includes a large dose of German witchcraft, and the black arts used by The Third Reich.

Aquino is a Lieutenant Colonel in the Army. He is a graduate of the National Defence University in Washington, D.C. He holds a Ph.D. in political science from the University of California, Santa Barbara, and a Master of Public Administration from George Washington University in Washington, D.C. He has taught political science for several years as an adjunct professor at Golden Gate University in San Francisco.

Aquino had gained notoriety by appearing on various daytime talk shows and TV specials that deal with the subject of Satanism.

Satanists are intelligent; however, working or playing with the black arts is as dangerous and volatile as handling unstable chemicals. It is nothing for anyone to experiment with in any form. Certainly not adolescents!

Like The Church of Satan, The Temple of Set began to have internal problems almost instantly and once again some left its ranks and began their own groups. Due to the 'split and divide' principle, the multiplication of Serious Satanism had been extremely rapid.

THE PROCESS CHURCH OF THE FINAL JUDGMENT

Maury Terry, in his book The Ultimate Evil, claims that The Process Church is one of the most deadly killer cults in existence. Its tentacles are assuredly national, possibly global. The cult's influence touched off an underground network which is suspected of numerous illegalities such as the infamous 'Son of Sam' killings in New York City, to name only one.

The Process Church of the Final Judgement was born

"In ancient mythology, Set is represented wither as an animal with a long nose, stiffly upraised ears and a forked tail, or a male human body with the head of the aforementioned animal. Set is the center of intelligence. We see this entity as quite real. Its what you might call the form of independent self-aware psyche."

Aleister Crowley's famous 'Staff of the Beast'-666. Crowley's influence lives on.

Dr. Aquino and wife Lilith Sinclair.

in London, England in 1963-64. The founding couple was Robert Moore and Mary Anne MacLean. They later split from their roots in Ron L. Hubbard's Church of Scientology and adopted the cult name of Robert and Mary DeGrimston.

In 1967, DeGrimston published, "As It Is." This spelled out the cult's philosophy. One statement in this work stands as their logic for recruitment.

The KEY to this is contained in the sentence which says that Christ and Satan have joined forces to bring a swift end to the world of despair. In other words, Christ, according to The Process philosophy, was employing Satan and his followers as hit men. So worshipping Satan was akin to worshipping Christ. And killing in the name of Satan was actually killing for Christ - a divine mission. This will hasten the end and all wrongs will be set right.

The Process founders interpreted from the Bible that the end was near and it was their divine duty to aid in bringing in the judgement by elimination. This teaching swept the nation and spawned several dangerous cults, including Charles Manson and his family.

The church's prophecy says all that is necessary for people to take notice. "My prophecy upon this wasted earth and upon the corrupt creation that squats upon its ruined surface is: THOU SHALT KILL!"

This philosophy is extremely deadly in the hands of anyone, especially adolescents who hear it in music, read it in books, see it in movies - videos - and TV, and have nothing else to counteract the influence.

These three groups of SERIOUS SATANISTS by no means constitute all that are tax-exempt and protected by law. Be suspicious of any outside sign identifying a church with the words 'temple', 'house of...', or some unusual religious symbol. Please remember that this level of Satanism is recognized by the United States Government and is perfectly legal. However, what they practice has filtered down to the youth of our country, and this leads to what is known as ‘dabblers,’ or Satanists on the self-styled level.

FUN SEEKING FRINGE

This level of Satanism is the most subtle, yet probably the most dangerous of all. People who get involved just for thrills are mostly teens, or even younger. These adolescents are enamored by the mysterious, and usually begin with such popular activities as playing with ouija boards, conducting their own ‘slumber party seances,’ watching horror films, following heavy metal music, and becoming involved with fantasy role playing games such as Dungeons and Dragons.

For the most part these and other seemingly innocent things offer outlets for rebellion, and kids who are on the fringe are usually into many occult related concepts without even knowing what lies behind their initial interest.

Young people who are on the fringe seek acceptance from peers who are frequently more deeply involved.

Robert Moore and Anne MacLean are founders of the Process Church of the Final Judgement.

They desire conversation about secret knowledge, and their favorite pastime is toying with fear. This level likes a good ‘scare’ as long as they are not in danger. Satanism, of which they really know nothing about, just seems to be the in thing and fringers strongly desire to look and act the part.

Outside of seeming totally normal, these young rebels might wear black clothing, paint their fingernails black, cut their hair in an unusual manner and sometimes even die it black if it does not happen to be that color. They also act out a virtual myriad of nonsensical expressions. These abnormal fantasies obviously boost their ego and allow them to communicate their deepest feelings with the very people who are waiting with open arms to receive their actions in full support. Who are these people standing in the wings? Satanists!

“DABLERS”

The dabbling stage follows as the ‘fringe’ becomes less and less thrilling. Dabblers discover a partial belief in the value system of the dark side, or the left path. Many dabblers develop some measure of serious interest as it relates to power in their own personal lives. Power to have possessions seldom dreamed of, power to use fear to control other youth who are intimidated by the dabbler’s activity, and more than these, a feeling of inward energy never experienced prior to a beginning knowledge of the occult.

Finally, if young people continue to ‘dabble,’ they become convinced that the realm of the supernatural is very real. By then they should have seen evidence of such reality and, more than likely have witnessed spiritual manifestations that leave no doubt that they have found the answers that can fill the void within the human soul. This level may experiment with a few rituals, and begin to get into trinkets and books, along with a few spells and hexes. The Satanic graffiti that is commonly seen on buildings and other public places naturally follows. When the graffiti appears, many times it is too late to dismiss it as a prank.

The next step leads to seeking a group to join in order to make a serious attempt at learning more. The more knowledge, the more power. The more power, the more control. The more control, the more personal fulfillment. The more fulfillment, the more peer acceptance and recognition. This formula is basic in the cult recruiting process.

Following is an anatomy of this process:

THE SELF-STYLED LEVEL

When the killing starts, it is usually small forms of life. Rodents, small pets, and other saplings. Nevertheless, through this practice, kids become desensitized to death. If someone on this level makes a negative reaction to sacrifices, they are told that they are weak, and are rejected severely. However, by then the youth is trapped. He is then made to believe that killing is good. Watching death signifies strength. So...he not only watches, but participates.

When young people get into the death connection, they stop advertising. They learn to cover their tracks, and the final level of mind control is the international network of Satanists.

For example, there was a teen club in a large metroplex area that was run by two adults heavily involved in ‘death rock.’ These adults would identify the individuals approximately 12-14 years of age who seemed to be more susceptible, and would invite them to a private part of the club. This was for the eligible only. An invitation was an honor. The kids would then be

Satanism is surfacing among the youth of America at an alarming rate. There are numerous reasons - unstable home lives, divorce rate increase, high levels of stress, low self-esteem, confusion, a search for acceptance, a lack of positive role models and even simple curiosity.

Serious Satanists look for young people with any or all of these weaknesses.

Recruiters say, "Come to us; you'll have free money, free sex, and free drugs. Many kids respond to this offer almost instantly. Power, thrills and companionship are awesome snares for the vulnerable.

At this level, Satanism looks very appealing. This is what a vast number of students are looking for. After the 'hook' is set, level two is dangled with more power on the end of the stick instead of the proverbial carrot. At level two, the shocking revelation comes forth that in order to gain the power blood is required.

lured into compromising situations after being given free sex, drugs, and alcohol.

The next day, when these young people would come to their senses, they would meekly go back to the group and say no more when they were presented with the pictures taken of them the night before. This was a practice that took place only periodically in order not to arouse suspicion. The kids would be threatened with harm to their parents, as well as the ruin of their reputations. Because of this, they would break down even more and participate in extremely bizarre Satanic rituals.

This particular club was closed down because of alcohol violations, but street _____ens felt trapped and investigating rumors explain that some followed the couple to a new location in another area of the city. They simply began again.

To cite only a smattering of examples, there are children who have publicly testified to sexual and Satanic abuse in several court cases across the country. Namely, The McMartin Preschool case in California (proves to be a 'taught' knowledge by the 'experts' in the social service organization handling the children) - The United States Military Academy at West Point, and others.

The serial killer Richard Ramirez, an avowed SELF-STYLED Satanist known as the 'night stalker', left behind pentagrams and other Satanic symbols at the crime scenes of his victims. His last statement after sentencing was, "Hail Satan!"

Some time ago the press picked up a gruesome story in New York of Richard Kasso, a seventeen-year-old kid who hung himself in his jail cell while awaiting trial for the mutilation murder of another teenager, Gary Lauwers, who he forced to say "I love Satan" before gouging out his eyes and stabbing him to death. Kasso belonged to a SELF-STYLED Satanist cult named "The Knights of the Black Circle."

(THRILL SEEKING)

The thrill seeking level is usually the most common aspect of beginning in the occult due to its seeming innocence. Fringe activities are easily identified because most people at one time or another have had some kind of involvement.

To name only a few....

Ouija Board

Many think that occult experiences are not only thrilling, but that they offer certain realities and answers for life's questions. Teens sometime play with the Ouija to seek the future. In fact, the instructions that come with the board tell the player to use it in a lighthearted way by asking silly questions and laughing over the answers.

Sir William Barrett, after testing the validity of the Ouija as far back as 1914 stated, "Whatever may have been the source of the intelligence displayed, it was absolutely beyond the range of normal human faculty."

Dr. Carl Wickland, former director of the Psychopathic Institute of Chicago said that he was drawn into research of the Ouija when he discovered that seemingly harmless experiences led to insanity with several individuals.

Martin Ebon, in his book "The Satan Trap", stated that the greatest outcry against the sale of the Ouija has come from spiritualists themselves who fear their children becoming possessed.

The Ouija Board is dangerous! It is an instrument of communication with the dead. The Ouija should never be the object of slumber party fun. It is a 'fringe' snare that leads further into the darker realm of the occult.

Unfortunately, the Ouija board is very popular at teen gatherings. However, few, if any, recognize the dangers that lie behind playing the game.

DUNGEONS AND DRAGONS

What is D & D?

Dr. Gary North in his book, "Dare Call It Witchcraft", says that Dungeons and Dragons is the most effective, most magnificently packaged, most profitably marketed, most thoroughly researched introduction to the occult in man's recorded history.

Listening to Heavy Metal music as a source of entertainment. (much of ‘Black Metal’ music explicitly teaches the darkest side of the occult while young people think they are listening only for pleasure)

The ‘fringe’ level also includes such things as:

Palmistry

(a group going to a Reader to have their fortunes told)

Tarot Cards

Dungeons and Dragons

One can find instruction books in any major toy store. The books, over twenty in number, are complicated, intricate, bizarre, expensive, and yet ... extremely popular. They feed the gourmet delights of millions of thrill seekers on the ‘fringe’ level.

D&D is a fantasy role playing game that teaches demonology, witchcraft, voodoo, murder, rape, blasphemy, suicide, assassination, insanity, sex, perversion, homosexuality, prostitution, Satan worship, gambling, Jungian psychology, barbarism, cannibalism, sadism, desecration, demon summoning, necromantics, divination, and many other occultic themes in living color.

(another method to discover the culture through reading tarot cards)

Watching horror videos

or movies that deal directly with some aspect of the occult.

(a favorite pastime for a good party scare)

Keeping up with one’s horoscope

in the newspaper on a daily basis. (Many do this just for fun to see what will happen. Those who go so far as having personal charts made and read by astrologers have fallen into a deeper level of involvement.)

Reading mystery or horror books

(These are written on partial black background and very hard to read - contact some teen)

A favorite party activity is a seance.

(Communication with the dead for the purpose of seeking a thrill is dangerous!)

Other types of ‘fringe’ activities include the study of some types of martial arts; a fancy with pornography; a slight interest in ESP; painting the body with occult symbols; dressing in black to gain attention; etc.

Most who would be considered ‘fringe’ thrill seekers are usually good kids with no prior behavioral problems. One of the primary tactics of those who are recruiting for Satanism is to offer young people free drugs and sex in a party atmosphere. However, the above listed activities and other innocent attempts to pursue personal pleasure, or ‘brush’ the unknown can draw the best of youth into a heavier levels of Satanic involvement.

THE DABBLER LEVEL

(Some Serious Interest)

It is not always easy to detect whether a person has moved from the ‘fringe’ level to becoming a ‘dabblor.’ Some indications that an individual has progressed are:

A. The presence of books about Satanism or the occult.

These would most likely include “The Satanic Bible,” and “The Satanic Rituals.”

B. Paraphernalia for doing magic.

“The Satanic Bible” lists the following items:

Clothing or jewelry - This includes robes and amulets.

The Altar - Recommended is a trapezoidal shape about 3 to 4 feet high and 5 to 6 feet long.

The symbol of Baphomet - see in symbols and signs)

Candles - “The Satanic Bible” says only one white, the rest black.

A Bell - Used to begin and end a ritual.

A Chalice - A goblet used for the drink of whatever the ritual calls for.

There are many other items of recognizable paraphernalia such as a sword; a phallus; a gong; the witches’ cord and a Book of Shadows.

Other signs of deeper involvement include obsessions with Black Heavy Metal music; themes of death and suicide; drugs; Satanic symbols in predominate place; withdrawal from family; unnamed mysterious friends; unusual nightly habits; and a general mockery of Christianity.

Dabblers in self-styled Satanism generally have little or no ties to known, ‘out-of-the-closet’ groups. For the most part, these coven are usually small and are extremely difficult to find, trace, or investigate. However, this level of involvement sometimes leads to much more serious activity.

The second level, called ‘dabblers’, are youth who have experimented with the fringes of the Satanism, and are intrigued enough to become more seriously involved. The ‘dabbling’ level focuses on power as the main goal. Those who are in positions of leadership in a cult recognize vulnerable seekers and tantalize them with free sex and drugs. The youth see only the glamour of what can be theirs, and are willing to do whatever is necessary to achieve a higher degree of knowledge. At first, ‘dabblers’ have only a partial interest in getting deeper into Satanism as a means to an end.

Experimental rituals become common, and a simple belief system begins to form.

WHAT IS A RITUAL?

These unsuspecting teens are easy prey to become

According to a definition given by the Texas Department of Public Safety, a ritual is a prescribed ceremony of religious or magical origin, designed to invoke or placate a deity, and is characterized by symbolic attire and formalized behavior.

A ritual is performed in order to obtain supernatural power, spiritual illumination, and other specific blessings from the god who is being worshipped. Other blessings include: sexual prowess, immortality, invincible power, and the destruction of one’s enemy’s.

Pete Roland, a young man serving life without parole in a Missouri State prison said in a television interview, “At first it seemed like nothing. Then the killing started. We usually killed small animals to start with. Then came the addiction to power and blood. Heavy metal music and drugs didn’t help any. It ceased to be just a thrill, and became necessary. After that, anything became a target for a good kill. It wound up with these hands killing a friend. A human being! We did it because he was easy.” Pete and a friend who were ‘dabbling’ in occult rituals beat another member of the group to death with baseball bats and threw his body into a well they called ‘the pit.’

(Recognized Group Participation)

Those who become involved on the SERIOUS LEVEL usually have come up through the ranks of experience in the other levels previously discussed.

This level includes organized groups such as:

The Church of Satan - Began by Anton LaVey in 1966 in San Francisco, Calif. The church has the same tax status with the government as any other church and it’s members number in the thousands around the world. It’s premise? DO WHAT THOU WILT IS THE WHOLE OF THE LAW!

WICCA - This is an accepted form of witchcraft which commonly files for exemption with the IRS and establishes WICCIAN churches. There are many specialty areas among WICCA, yet the whole is definitely on the SERIOUS LEVEL. Many who subscribe to New Age principles are members of The Church of WICCA.

The Temple of Set - Began by Michael Aquino in 1975 in order to purify Satanic practices and reduce the curiosity seekers through a highly complex initiation system.

SANTERIA - The word santeria is derived from the Spanish word ‘santo’ meaning saint. Santeria in its formal state evolved from Nigeria as Yoruba people were brought to the New World by slave traders. The slaves were not allowed to worship their gods, so they disguised their belief system with Catholic patron saints and were accepted. this is a highly complex religion and does require some blood sacrifice. A Bill is currently before congress to allow the killing of foul and other small animals for religious purposes. Santeria followers are mostly Hispanic in culture.

The Orthodox, or SERIOUS LEVEL of Satanism is structured, secretive, and dedicated. It's members are often family members from generations back. They develop their own traditions and rules which are complicated and subjective. many are prominent citizens and do not like publicity.

It is not illegal to be a Satanist, and not all Satanist engage in illegal activities. However, many do and their practices are sometimes so bizarre that people in all walks of normal life find it difficult to believe it is really happening. Occult related crime has reached virtually every community in our country.

THE CRIMINAL LEVEL

Serious Satanists will not leave signs that are visible if at all possible. DABBLERS will want to advertise who they are and will leave signs around the crime scene that are obvious to those who know what to look for.

Satanic illegalities include trespassing; vandalism; cruelty to animals (mutilation); kidnapping; rape or sexual abuse; child abuse; murder; destruction of property; unexplainable fires; use to possession of non-registered weapons; and even more bizarre and unmentionable behavior.

Although the Satanic Bible disclaims such activity, other sources verify that such things are in fact a part of the 'Black Magic' tradition. In his book, 'The Black Arts', Richard Cavendish mentions two main reasons for a literal sacrifice:

1. To provide energy. Blood is considered to be the source of live energy, and it is released in the sacrifice.

2. To give a psychological charge or "kick" to the participants. Cavendish, a leading author of occult traditions, maintains that this is the most important reason for the sacrifice.

One of the most astounding discoveries made since Satanism has come 'out of the closet' is the ritualistic abuse of children. Dr. Catherine Gould, a clinical psychologist practicing in Encino, California, lists several symptoms that characterize SATANIC RITUAL ABUSE that are not usually seen in general sexual abuse cases.

- 1. Preoccupation with urine and feces
- 2. Discussion of feces or urine on the face or in the mouth
- 3. Urine or feces strewn or smeared in the bathroom
- 4. Inability to toilet train a child because of fear
- 5. Preoccupation with passing gas
- 6. Aggressive play that has marked sadistic quality
- 7. Mutilation themes dominate play (severing body parts)
- 8. Harming animals or discussion of killing animals
- 9. Preoccupation with themes of death
- 10. Fear of something foreign in child's body

(ants, etc)

- 11. Fear of being restrained
- 12. Fear of ghosts or monsters
- 13. Mention of "bad people" harming parents
- 14. Resistance to being left with baby-sitters
- 15. Preoccupation with devil, magic, potions, etc.
- 16. Odd songs or chants with a 'you better not tell them'
- 17. Numbers or letters always written backwards
- 18. Constant fatigue, illness, vomiting
- 19. References to "my other daddy or mommy"
- 20. References to people in scary costumes or robes
- 21. References to sexual activity with other children
- 22. Discussion of being taken to people's houses (not normal)
- 23. References to pictures with descriptions of nudity
- 24. marks on child's back, unusual bruising
- 25. Nightmares or dreams of any of the above

(Ritual Abuse And Occult-Related Crime)

Satanic ritual abusers tend to infiltrate schools and daycare centers in clusters by geographic area. However, confronting schools most always produces denial, consequently, the children and parents appear to be panicked for no reason whatsoever.

A prime example is the McMartin Preschool case, which at this writing is still in court after three years and has cost the taxpayers in excess of 15 million dollars. This Satanic Ritual Abuse case is the longest criminal case ever to be tried in this country with no seeming end in sight. (Note: this was proven unfounded and the idea progressively planted in the children's minds by the "counselors." According to 'Believe The Children', some of the symptoms that surface in pre-school age children are anger; low self-esteem; short attention span; uncontrolled (wild); resistant to authority; rapid mood swings; withdrawn; regressed speech; stomachaches; sleep disorders; masturbation; sexual touching (personal and others); complaints in vaginal and anal area; semen or blood stains on underwear; statements of witnessing sex acts; rectal laceration or scarring; and many other incredible statements and references including examinations revealing venereal disease.

Occult crime is related to drug trafficking, gang violence, child theft, pornography, murder, and suicide. Satanism is on the rise in America and these are only surface facts that demand our immediate attention.

BELIEVE THE CHILDREN
The 'grass root' organization called BELIEVE THE CHILDREN can give mounds of information on cases in every state in America where Satanic Ritual Abuse is involved.

- Following are 13 steps to assist parents, peers, and police in dealing with CRIMINAL RITUALISTIC BEHAVIOR.
1. Do not view interest as just another phase
  2. Know the danger signs
  3. Determine the intensity of involvement
  4. Determine the first significant changes in personality
  5. Become aware of what influences the youth sub-culture
  6. Regain control (authority in home)
  7. Do not hesitate to confront
  8. Treat as emotional disorder - GET HELP
  9. Seek counseling for entire family
  10. Remove negative influences - "De-Tox" your home
  11. Get involved in your child's life
  12. Positive peer groups - Positive parental

Satanism exists in the oldest historical documents we have. To deny its influences is to open the door for sure danger and possible destruction of family and friends. It is not a myth. It is a modern nightmare! No matter what one believes about Satan, thousands are dedicated believers and are willing to go to whatever means necessary to accomplish the goals of their horned god.

"...it is possible that one in five missing children in California alone have been eaten!"
-Paul Harvey, 1987

Kenneth Wooden, founder of 'Child Lures' states in the beginning of his family prevention booklet, "It is relatively safe to assume that every child who enters school has been taught that certain things are dangerous - moving cars matches, electrical outlets, heights, swimming unattended, etc."

He further says that some well-meaning educators and overly-sensitive parents feel that teaching on the dangers of molestation, abduction, and other forms of youth exploitation will cause unwarranted fear in the youth themselves.

These reservations have proven to be extremely unfounded, and even deadly. Safety and prevention concepts which deal with the recognition and identification of potentially dangerous situations relating to Satanic cult activity is essential. Many parents are beginning to discover that their children are much more 'streetwise' than they realized.

METHODS FOR OPERATION

The lures used to entice and involve children and teens are numerically and creatively infinite. Found in Wooden's booklet are ten specific categories of METHODS revealing HOW THEY DO IT. Perpetrators get close to youth by:

- Affection - Someone known by the child
- Assistance - Recruiters approach teens to ask for help
- Authority - Police officers; clergy; uniformed security
- Bribery - Candy, toys, other rewards
- Threats - Violent and verbal threats of harm

Emergency - Someone is sick, come with me
Games/Fun - Innocent intimate body contact
Ego/Fame - Modeling job; movie contracts; etc.
Heroes - Santa; Easter Bunny; cartoon costumes
Playmates - Already abused teens; family recruiters

Exactly what is a Destructive Religious Cult and how do they recruit? Any group that uses manipulation through a variety of means with a point to capture and control an individual is a cult. The recruitment practice is usually deceptive and the victim enters the cult either through a growing interest or a desperate need for belonging.

The HOW TO'S of recruitment are complicated and subtle. First, a parent or a friend builds a trust factor. Trust is then violated by threats or violence. The heroes are destroyed and become evil to the child or teen. Many times animals will be killed and members forced to watch. Then come the reminders through photographs or drawings. Victims are told that they are the cause for the animal's death, and should they tell anyone they are personally threatened with the same type of death. Sometimes death comes by skinning the animal alive.

Children and coven initiates have been put in open graves, crematories, caskets, closets, and basements to reinforce fear and maintain control. Drugs are used for inducement as well as sexual privileges with already trapped members.

Forced ingestion of blood, human waste, and body parts have long been reported in Satanic Activity. Children from across the nation have related similar stories of being forced to watch murders and being photographed in explicit sexual situations with other children, adults, and animals. They are told the photos will be used against them should they speak out.

Recruitment into active Satanism is a well-planned and subtle process which has devastating results. An initial introduction to the subculture of Satanic cults is prevalent in the signs, symbols, and influences observed in such popular entertainment forms as heavy metal music, k dress, movies, videos, television, games, and drug abuse.

As far back as the early 70s, Satanic symbolism surfaced in wide variety. What one sees everyday he tends to accept more easily. Now that we border on the 1990's, these powerful symbols are so commonplace that the average person has little or no clue as to the activity behind them.

CULT RECRUITMENT

ACTIVE RECRUITING AREAS

Youth are the prize target for Satanism. Wherever kids are, Satanists are. They know if they can capture this generation, they can usher in THE NEW AGE.

Recruiters frequent any place where teens and children gather. This includes church camps, Sunday schools, private Christian schools, rock concerts, parties, fraternities, etc. However, there are THREE CENTRAL POINTS for steady recruiting contact.

- 1. COLLEGE CAMPUS - In 1988, The Satanic Bible outsold The Holy Bible 10 to 1.
- 2. MILITARY BASES - Young men are extremely obedient in this type of setting. This allows anyone to gain authority.
- 3. SCHOOLS/DAY CARE - Daycare centers offer access to children. Elementary, Jr. High, and High Schools are fertile areas for peer rejection.

The common profile of a young person who is vulnerable to Satanic recruitment is as follows:

- 1. Middle to upper class home
- 2. Low self-esteem/image
- 3. High intelligence
- 4. Social recluse
- 5. Broken homes and split families
- 6. Latch-key kids
- 7. Deep need for belonging
- 8. Susceptible to peer pressure
- 9. Impressionable
- 10. Victims of prior sexual abuse
- 11. Little parental care or involvement in their lives
- 12. Alienated from church
- 13. Very creative/curious
- 14. Rebellious and looking for power
- 15. Over or underachievers

Other recruiting techniques utilize brainwashing and indoctrination methods which are 'state of the art.'

Dr. Dale W. Griffiths, a recognized authority and law enforcement specialist, lists an onslaught of mind-control activities used by Satanic cults, as well as main line cults. He names isolation, hypnosis, peer group pressure, love bombing, removal or privacy, sleep deprivation and fatigue, games, subliminal communication, confusion, no questions, rejection of old values, confession, guilt, fear, chanting and singing, change of diet, controlled approval, dress codes, flaunting hierarchy, finger pointing, replacement or relationships, and above all WORSHIP AND LOYALTY.

Think! If adolescents are impressionable and troubles and are offered seemingly rational solutions to immediate problems, they are 'easy pickings' for hard-core recruiters. So easy, the kids themselves are often totally unaware that they are stepping into what may be an extremely dangerous cult. They only know that they have been accepted by 'new found' friends.

MAINTAINING GROUP CONTROL

Once teens are entrapped in Satanism they are explicitly told there is no way out but death. This is serious! This type of indoctrination is costing thousands of lives annually. What makes this generation so exposed? So unguarded?

1. We are the first generation with complete media exposure.
2. We are the first generation with such a loss of family structure.
3. We are the first generation without a complete maturing process. Kids grow too fast, too

Satanic rebirth. - Initiation Ritual: Eyes, ears, mouth sealed with wax. Initiate is placed into an actual grave and the lid is closed. When the ritual is over the eyes, ears and mouth belong totally to Satan.

soon!

4. We are the first generation in which youth see no potential future.
5. We are the first generation with no moral cohesion.
6. WE are the first generation in which youth have little or no ability to cope.

These are harsh realities, but each one is explained, expanded upon and documented in Winkie Pratney's book, 'Devil Take The Youngest.' This generation has so many choices to make on a minute by minute basis that they simply do not make any. Consequently, it is easier to let someone make decisions for them.

Satanists control their members in much the same manner that they recruit them.

Such bizarre experiences as 'the Black Hole' seem common to most ritualized abuse survivors. The Black Hole is used to maintain control and enforce discipline. A person is suspended head first into a dark pit which contains human/animal parts, blood, rats, snakes, spiders, etc. This lasts for up to 24 hours or even longer. The more severe the punishment to control, the worse the experience is. Sometimes the pit or enclosure is filled with the mutilated body parts and blood of a close friend. The Black Hole is one of the most difficult experiences for a survivor to work through.

Whippings, pins stuck in different layers of skin, and other forms of torture are used on members who are disobedient while others watch. This is how control is maintained, while all the time coven members are told they can never leave. Never!

Satanism is a direct attack on Christianity. It makes no difference whether it is a religious attack or not, Satanism and Witchcraft make no attempt to pervert any other religion. There are no blasphemous statements about Hinduism, Buddhism, Islam, Taoism, Confucianism, Mohammedanism, Zoroastrianisms, or any other major world religions - only Christianity. None of the other thousands of deities in Babylonian, Egyptian, Greek, or Roman mythology is spoken evil of. Only Jesus Christ. This phenomenon is interesting to say the least.

Gregory R. Reid, a recognized authority on occult activity and a personal survivor of Satanic ritual abuse explained this micro-cosmic forces in a recent publication.

"There is one common denominator among all former Satanists. I being one. They are all now "born again" Christians, and they will readily tell you that is why they lived to tell their stories. Satanists, it seems, avoid Christians as much as possible. It seems they are afraid of them. Their hatred for them is strong. Satanists live to pervert, degrade and destroy everything that speaks of Christian values, church and family."

What Greg is simply saying...THERE IS A WAY OUT OTHER THAN DEATH.

When They Do It

Certain times and dates are as important to various cults as any other religious holidays are to its members. Some Satanic or Witchcraft groups are required to perform certain rituals on these dates.

HALLOWEEN

The opinions concerning the celebration of Halloween are so varied that volumes have been written to address the subject. Should it be publicly celebrated or not? What about the poison candy and razor blades? What is 'trick or treat'?...and so on.

Its origin, however, is as mysterious as the opinions are varied. If one thinks Halloween is a time for cornstalks, pumpkins, apples in tubes, children dressed in 'cute' witchcraft costumes, witches, goblins, and devils...one best become informed.

WITCHCRAFT IS NOT CHILD'S PLAY!

For example, Halloween is a day when witches celebrate the dead. The church of WICCA has tax exempt status with the IRS, which means that the U.S. Government recognizes the religious nature of their belief.

The earliest celebrations of Halloween began among the Celts, who lived 2,000 years ago in what is now England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales. Druid Witchcraft grew from this tradition.

'All Saints Day' (All Souls Day), which somewhat coincided with this early celebration, was a day that the 7th century church set aside in memory of early Christians who died for their beliefs. Another name that evolved as time passed was 'All Hallows Eve.' The Christian nature of the celebration was overtaken by pagan influence before the tenth century, and the name was later shortened to HALLOWEEN. What was intended to be strictly a Christian holiday gave way to the customs of the ancients. Death once again overshadowed the festival. Herein lies the roots of most, if not all, of the customs that we practice today.

In modern Satanism, 'All Hallows Eve' is a night when the Devil himself fellowships with his followers. It is not a joke or is it to be scoffed. Many changes concerning this day have occurred over the centuries. Nevertheless, just as people once offered gifts of food and other items to evil spirits, people today offer treats to the children who represent them.

As innocent as it may seem, when children carry lighted Jack-O-Lanterns, they are picturing the fires and torches of former Satanists from possibly the oldest witchcraft celebration we know anything about. Certainly the most popular.

WHERE THEY DO IT

"We no longer could hear the screams from our brother officer. Finally, the order came to go into the house. Tear gas was lobbed into the three-bedroom home, followed by bursts from our automatic weapons. We tried to smash our way through the front door. Entry was difficult as the doors were barricaded with furniture. As we broke through the front door, the occupants began to fire at us from two different rooms, chanting and shouting as they fired."

"Just inside the front door we found him, or what was left of him. His hands were cuffed behind his back with his own handcuffs. His face was unrecognizable from the torture he had received. WE became enraged. WE went from room to room firing, until no one fired back."

"Afterward, as we examined our seven dead adversaries, one officer asked, 'what were they shouting?' Another responded, 'That we're the anti-Christ, agents of the Devil!'"

Where do Satanic cults operate? Quite simply ...ANYWHERE AND EVERYWHERE. The above is only one of many accounts which relate how killer cults conduct rituals even in private residences. However, cults normally meet in deserted isolated areas.

GEOGRAPHICAL CENTERS

The 'center down' geographical section for occult activity in America is the Ozark Mountain Range. This does not mean there are no other centers, but the Ozarks give natural wooded cover and unpopulated spaces necessary in order that the horror that occurs in some rituals can go unnoticed.

Even though the above conditions are ideal, other popular meeting sites are:

1. Abandoned Buildings (Offices, manufacturing plants)
2. Abandoned Churches (More than likely if available)
3. Basements
4. Beaches
5. Privately Owned Businesses
6. Campgrounds
7. Cemeteries
8. College Dorm Rooms
9. Crematories
10. Desert Areas
11. Isolated Wooded Areas (Private Property)
12. Mortuaries
13. Mountain Areas
14. Parks
15. Pre-schools
16. Private/Public Schools
17. Private Homes
18. Riverbeds
19. Statues/Monuments
20. Under Bridges (Very Popular and Prevalent Sites)
21. Underground
22. Zoos

Needless to say, the above list covers most every place one could think of. The favorite meeting place for practitioners, however, is an occult book store or botanica.

COMMUNITY SIGNS

One major indication of Satanic cult activity in an immediate area is the appearance of mutilated animals, i.e. dogs, cats, cattle, etc.

Reports of cattle and other large animals being surgically destroyed with great precision have been circulating for at least two decades. It has not been until the past few years that law enforcement agencies have realized that cadavers offer numerous 'tattle-tale' clues which clearly expose operating cults. Namely:

1. Missing blood
2. No bullet wounds
3. Missing organs (sex, heart, ears, eyes, tail)
4. Blanched skin from electric shock
5. Tongues cut out

Another horrifying COMMUNITY SIGN is missing children. Dr. Al Carlisle, Ph.D., with the Utah State Prison System, after conducting a study on occult murders, states that out of the dozens of individuals he interviewed who were heavily involved in Satanism, estimates may be between 50,000 and 60,000 human sacrifices per year in this country. He states this is only an estimate, but may be on the low side.

In a 1987 news broadcast on the subject of Satanism, Paul Harvey stated, "...I had rather not say what I am about to say but I'm afraid you couldn't appreciate the urgency of this social cancer otherwise. Police and medical officials, including psychiatrists of repute, believe that of all missing children in the State of California alone, of all so-called missing children, one in five - it's probably that one in five, twenty per cent of them, have been eaten!! Where sacrificial children formerly were supplied by breeders within the cult or coven, now they are sought from the streets."

There is simply too much evidence verifying these incredible facts for anyone to flippantly approach the problem. DENIAL MUST STOP! Kids are dying!

Extensive research and interviews with convicted molester/murderers who have admitted involvement in the occult reveal the following trends:

1. Children are the target.
2. They are selected prior to abduction.
3. Most children and parents alike are uninformed of the dangers of Satanic cults.
4. Common targets include children in the middle of divorce proceedings; children with no religious affiliation; single female parents who have total trust of male friends; children of parents who are sexually promiscuous.
5. Children are too trusting toward "weird" people.

Other COMMUNITY SIGNS include:

1. Occult graffiti on sidewalks, etc.
2. Occult books disappearing from stores and libraries
3. Bon fire meetings in open fields at night (Full Moon)
4. Mysterious murders/suicides/crimes that police keep silent
5. Unusual demand for occult-related jewelry
6. Shoplifting in candle shops or unusual numbers of purchases

7. Demand for occult or new age books in bookstores

One simple 'rule of thumb' for locating the center of cult activity in a community or country is to take a map of the area and overlay a drawing of an inverted star on the map. Information and experience compiled by experts has shown this method to be unusually successful in locating meeting or ritual sites.

FAMILY OR PERSONAL SIGNS

In his own written testimony, Sean Sellers, a former Satanist and how the youngest inmate on death row of the Oklahoma State Prison stated "I made a pact to Satan. In my own blood I wrote, I renounce God, I renounce Christ. I will serve only Satan. To my friends love, to my enemies death...HAIL SATAN!' and I signed my name at the bottom with my blood."

Following a ritual, Sean Sellers murdered his mother and stepfather while they slept. His service to Satan may well cost him his life.

The true story of Sellers' involvement with the occult, as well as two other young inmates who are former Satanists, yield a wealth of practical information by naming the personal signs that parents would look for in their children or teens. The following signs are more than common across the country, they are almost identical.

- 1. An unusual interest in the Bible (learning about Satan)
- 2. A mockery of Christianity
- 3. An interest in occult movies and books
- 4. A devotion to 'black' heavy metal music
- 5. Speaking to parents and friends in rhyme
- 6. Poems and prose with themes of blood, death, murder, Satan, evil, dying, suicide
- 7. Unusually long fingernails (sometimes painted black)
- 8. Eating raw meat in front of peers
- 9. Extremely violent rebellion
- 10. Occult drawings on notebooks, tattoos (see symbols)
- 11. Heavy use of hallucinogens or other drugs
- 12. Black dress - unusual dress
- 13. Altars in basements; backyards; trees; clubs
- 14. Candles, chalice, knives, paraphernalia in bedroom
- 15. Boys wearing evil-appearing make-up
- 16. Cruelty to animals or innocent people
- 17. Bizarre haircuts; hair color
- 18. Withdrawal from family
- 19. Rebellious attitude toward authority figures (especially law enforcement people or weak people)
- 20. Unusual interest on special days with no normal meaning
- 21. Sudden behavior changes (depression, paranoia, outbursts)

22. Deep fears; terror nightmares; waking in night screaming

23. A sudden shift in friendship; reluctance to explain

24. Outbursts of obscenities that are abnormal

25. Obsession with games such as Dungeons and Dragons

None of the above signs definitely constitute Satanic involvement, but several in tandem could point to some level of experimentation. The key is to know your young persons activities' and become involved in their lives. If you suspect involvement, or know for a fact that such is the case seek help immediately. ## HOW WIDESPREAD IS THE PROBLEM?

Satanism, Witchcraft, Devil Worship, New Age, and every tangent that stems from THE OCCULT is the fastest growing subculture movement among America's teens. Headlines regarding evidence of such activities are shocking and horrible. Teenagers tell of being involved in blood sacrifices, cannibalism, mutilation, and other outrageous practices that sound so stunning and hideous that rational people want to deny the reports as hysterical overreaction.

However, Satanism is a growing phenomenon that crosses all boundaries...geographical, economical, educational, age, vocational, and religious.

Following are news headlines from across the nation.

SEAN SELLERS

Many people have asked me for my testimony. Many wish I would write a book. One day perhaps, I shall write it all down exhaustively. But, for now, let this short form herein be enough. I've told my story so many times, and I have always skirted much of the horror. This time I'm going to shock you. In the past it has been done mainly for Christians, so I left out the gore. This time I'm writing it for Satanists. This time it's going to be real.

"Aren't you afraid?," the girl in my art class asked holding her paint brush poised to the canvas.

"Afraid? Babe, I AM what people fear." I smiled wickedly.

She blinked. "I mean about going to hell," she said questioningly, still not understanding the person she had painted beside for six months. The person she had thought was pretty cool. Weird, but cool! She still didn't know that I was a practicing Satanist.

"Nah, I have a round trip ticket so I'm not worried about hell." She backed up a couple of steps.

"Cheryl," I said grinning, it's still me...Sean! You've known me all year. I've been a Satanist for nearly two years. I haven't changed overnight or anything."

She shook her head. "How can anyone be a Satanist? I mean, why do you WANT to worship the devil?"

If you only knew, I thought. "Look around you. What do you think about this little world we live in?"

"It's not so bad," she said.

"Girl...you're something! Just check it out. Look around you. You've got dweebs like that drip over there." I gestured toward a kid asleep on his drawing table whom I had smoked a joint with before class. "Do you really think he enjoys life? He's worn the same pants to school for three days. Check out miss priss over there primping in front of the mirror. That's right Sweetie, I'm talking about you. Oh, by the way, you missed hair number 99." The girl tried to ignore me.

I turned back to Cheryl. "Have you ever seen her wear anything twice? The only thing she comes in here with that we've seen before is that suitcase of a purse she carries her makeup in."

"Okay, so maybe life's not so fair, but..."

"I'm not talking about fair, Doll. No one ever promised us life would be fair. What I'm talking about is God."

"What do you mean?" she asked.

I leaned against the counter where the paints were kept. "You know the crowd Amy hangs out with. What's that on top of her books? A Bible, right? She's a Christian and, personally, she's one of the most stuck-up 'cherries' I know. Oh, God has been good to her all right. She's probably got a credit card with her name on it. If I were here, I'd be a Christian too. But what the hell has your precious God ever done for me? Everything I've got I had to work for. Damn hard too. You see that pickup I drive? Yeah, it's a '73 Ford, white with a green door, dented like crazy. Well, it may not be much, but it's mine. I worked for it. My parents didn't help me."

"So?" Cheryl shrugged.

"So, what I'm saying is we live in America. We work for what we get. And if your God really cares, He has a strange way of showing it. Do unto others as you would have them do unto you...and get walked on, because this world is really messed up. I say do unto others as they do unto you. Let me ask you something. If someone came up and slapped you, would you hit them back?"

"Probably."

"See? I thought Christians were supposed to turn the other cheek."

"I didn't say I was a Christian," Cheryl argued.'

"You're not a Christian?" I asked.

"Well, I don't know...."

"You're living by an ideal of Satanism. Do you know where 'Do unto others as they do unto you' comes from? THE SATANIC BIBLE. So you're living an ideal of Satan and you think I'm weird because I've got my eyes open."

I left Cheryl confused. That night as I got off work, the conversation came up in my mind. I sat in my pickup in the parking lot with the door open smoking a cigarette. Beside me lay a briefcase and on top of it my knife. I picked up the double-edged boot knife and tossed it on the dash as I opened the briefcase. I sorted through the books on Ninjutsu, astral projection, witchcraft, runes, and picked up a blood-smeared copy of THE SATANIC BIBLE.

Satan represents undefiled wisdom instead of hypocritical self-deceit.

People are so blind, I thought. I tossed my cigarette onto the pavement and sighed. From out of my pocket I took a small vial of blood. Tilting it back and forth, I watched the bubbles snap leaving specks on the glass until I turned it over washing it crimson again. I removed the cap and touched my tongue to the top, tasting it. Then I poured it into my mouth and let the warmth of it cover my teeth. Swallowing it I thought, "And people think vampires only live in the movies."

I fished in the glove box for some NO-DOZE and took out the small bottle. I poured the pills out in my hand and ate two of them with a white-cross (speed). Closing the glove box, I leaned back and sighed. "Speed. Blood. Satanism. I don't know, Sean. Maybe you are going crazy," I said to myself. "God, I hate this life. How did I get so confused?"

My mind went back to 13. Always 13. Every time I questioned my life, I always started at 13. I was finally a teenager. It seemed like the proverbial unlucky number.

I had been raised on country music and had begun to drift toward rock and roll. On the bus home from school, Boston's "Smoking" would jam from the back seats where we sat followed by "I Love Rock and Roll," by Joan Jett. M-TV was just beginning with videos like "Jack and Diane" by John Cougar and "Words" by Missing Persons.

Beneath the few books I carried home with my football equipment was a notebook filled with Dungeons & Dragons material. I did four things. I played football, practiced Ninjutsu, collected comic books and played D

I was a Dungeon Master and I also played a character. We ran three different campaigns. I DMed in two of them and played my neutral/chaotic fighter in the third. Nobody understood the game as well as I. I read, I studied the manuals. I created new and more intense Dungeon modules. All of my spare time in school was taken up in my study of D & D.

And at home, it was Ninjutsu. The ninjamania craze had yet to hit the U.S., so there was not much material on it to be found. I practiced daily with my cousin, who introduced me to it. He was 18 and we would go into the yard and spar. When he worked, I practiced nunchakus, shuriken, and bokken. At night we “played hide and seek.” I learned how to walk quietly in leaves and sticks. I learned how to fight.

We moved to Colorado and I continued to study with what had become my hobbies. After a year, football had been left behind and I joined the Civil Air Patrol (CAP). I attended special training schools, became a NEAT (National Emergency Assistance Training) qualified Ranger, graduating with an outstanding cadet merit. A few months later, I was the squadron cadet commander.

I continued to focus on Ninjutsu. I walked out of the movies one night disgusted after watching “Revenge of the Ninja.” All the acrobatic and costumes were foolishness. I began to ask myself, “Do I really know what Ninjutsu is all about?” I began to study. I learned about the spiritual focusing of Zen meditation and began disciplining my mind even more.

At night, I prepared to organize my CAP squadron, worked out punching out candle flames, and meditated.

At a common trip to the library, I researched the origins and legends of dragons. The people I played D & D with were getting too cocky. Their characters needed to learn humility, I had decided. So I planned to bring to life in the game a powerful dragon from mythology that could only be defeated with a riddle.

Zen had taught me that battles were won in the mind first and didn't always have to be fought physically. I wanted to teach that to those I played with.

The research on dragons led me to the Time/Life series of books on the occult. I began reading about wizards and witches, and remembering an episode when I was younger in which a baby-sitter had checked out some books on witchcraft and Satanism for me, I turned my study toward that. All day I looked through the library card catalog and shelves. I looked up demons, witches, Salem, witchcraft, evil, Satan, Satanism, voodoo, and whatever I could find. There was something that mysteriously connected all this with my study of Ninjutsu, and I resolved myself to find it. There was power in the supernatural world, and I wanted to learn how to harness and use it.

It was then when I became angry with God and began to hate Him. I had met a girl and fallen in love, regardless of everyone telling me I was too young to know what love is. During a phone call one night while my parents were gone for a few days, she told me to get out of her life and leave her alone.

I had met the girl a year before in church. She was my first real kiss. And now I felt dead inside. I decided to kill myself. I went to my bedroom, got my shotgun, and placed it in the middle of the living room floor. With my cleaning kit, I began to take it apart and oil it. As I did so, I began to think about how everyone would feel with my being gone. I began to miss me. And as I placed the number four shell into the newly oiled chamber and pulled the bolt back, placing the gun barrel to my chin, I said out loud, “What, am I freaking crazy? What the hell am I doing?”

I put the gun down, called a friend, and asked him to come over. When he walked in, he saw the gun, and after hearing the story decided to stay the night. We got drunk.

I had prayed to God that this girl would love me as I loved her. God had failed me. He didn't love me. I hated Him. I wanted nothing to do with God anymore. It was my friends, not Him, not my family, who were there when I needed them. I could depend on my friends, no one else...except myself.

We moved again. Returning to Oklahoma, I was reunited with old friends, but I had changed. I left a short-haired football player who wore Wranglers. I returned with long hair, wearing my NEAT Ranger beret, a Levi jacket, and 501's, carrying a double-edged boot knife tucked in my pants at the small of my back, and NIKE hightops. When I left, I had been in a few fights and shown I could fight. Now, I carried an air of being downright dangerous. I was cool.

Time heals wounds, and in time, I met a new girl. This one, knowing I was interested in witchcraft, introduced me to a witch. Her name was Glasheon. Some of her first words to me were, “You can go white magic or black magic. White magic is sorta hypocritical. If you want real power, go black magic.”

“Let's go black magic,” I replied.

She said the first step was praying to Satan and gave me a special incantation to call forth the powers of evil. Now I was mad at God, but it still took me a day to get up the nerve to pray to the Devil. That night was a turning point.

By Glasheon's instructions, I stripped naked and laid down. “Satan, I call you forth to serve you,” I prayed aloud and recited Glasheon's incantation. I felt the room grow cold and experienced the unmistakable presence of utter evil enter. My blood pressure went up. The veins on my arms were bulged. I got an erection and began to feel a lifting sensation. Then something touched me.

My eyes flew open but saw only spots, as they had been closed so tightly. Again I felt something touch me, and I shut my eyes terrified and thrilled. It felt like ice-cold claws began to rake my body caressingly, and I shook in an erotic pleasure as they explored every inch of my body. I heard an audible voice speak three words in a whisper, “I love you.”

I continued to pray, telling Satan I accepted and would serve him. One by one the invisible clawed hands touching me disappeared, and my blood pressure fell. I was alone.

I sat up exhausted, hooked, unbelieving. I hadn't been on drugs. I'd never smoked a joint. It had been incredible, and I knew it was real. I had found what I was looking for

- or so I thought.

I had to know more. I questioned, Glasheen crazily, learning what was myth and what was real. I went to the school library and researched biographies of prominent witches and Satanists. I searched bookstores for occult-related books, often stealing those I found. I studied, I learned. And then I got my friend involved.

The more I studied, the more I became aware of the common tie binding it all together. Satan was behind D & D and behind Ninjutsu. Satan was everywhere. Prominent men and women of society were tainted with hints of being involved in it. Hitler had made a pact with Satan. Marilyn Monroe had an affair with Anton LaVey - the author of THE SATANIC BIBLE. Led Zeppelin's Jimmy Page had bought Aliester Crowley's castle home and owned an occult bookstore. I decided that what LaVey wrote had to be true - that Satan was the force behind rebellion which led to freedom and was a way to success in a society where only the strong survive and only the ruthless attain the American dream.

I made a pact to Satan. In my own blood I wrote, "I renounce God, I renounce Christ. I will serve only Satan. To my friends love, to my enemies death...hail Satan." I placed my name at the bottom.

I combined all I had learned into a single group. The structure of D & D and CAP, the discipline and training of Zen and Ninjutsu, and the ideals, concepts, and ritualistic practices of Satanism all combined to become what we called the Elimination. I hated the hypocritical Christian community and was determined to eliminate them from society. We began performing rituals, but something seemed to be wrong. There was a barrier put up between us and the power we needed to invoke. We brought forth demons, but we wanted more. It was time to prove our allegiance to Satan. We began breaking the Ten Commandments. Only one remained, "Thou shall not murder." We talked about things such as waiting at a stop sign in the middle of nowhere and blowing away the first person who was fool enough to obey the law. We talked about torture for a friend's ex-girl-friend. We would tie her down, slice her breasts, cut her throat, but only after we would rape her for a few days.

It was after a lust ritual with my second priests that Satan took over our actions. In a game-like surreal euphoria, we drove to a convenience store where a man worked who had insulted my friend's girlfriend and refused to sell him beer. In my hand I held a cold steel killing tool - a .357 magnum loaded with hollow points.

After much conversation with the man who thought we were friends, my friend distracted him and I raised the gun from beneath the counter, pointed it at his head, and squeezed the trigger. It missed. I fired again. My friend cut him off from getting away. The second shot had only injured him. I caught him. His terror-stricken eyes searched mine for mercy behind the smoking barrel. I squeezed the trigger the he collapsed, knocked back from the impact - dead. Blood covered the rear wall and ran onto the floor. And two teenagers walked out, taking no money, no merchandise. Only the life of an innocent man for Satan.

In the car, we laughed as the evil delight of our action gripped us. We were not human. We were completely possessed by our demonic servants. We were stripped of all love, mercy, and kindness, and were consumed with hate, anger, and eroticism. We were Satanists.

The rituals continued, and now the barrier was gone. I began doing solitary rituals, invoking demons and asking them to enter my body as a sanctuary. During a ritual, in sacrificing my own blood to Satan, I received my Satanic name: Ezurate. Scars began to appear on my body, on my arms and chest where I continually gave blood to my master. I had begun to drink blood. I had begun to crave it. I took blood from my friends and myself, storing it in vials I had taken from a clinic. To keep my parents from questioning the scars, I used needles most of the time.

After a ritual in Colorado during summer vacation, we brought drugs into our coven. We got high sitting amidst cooling black candles and discarded black robes. After the fourth joint, a sense of creeping paranoia flung us from the abandoned office building we were using. A week later, I was caught shoplifting black material from a fabric store and was sent home.

I began smoking, taking speed, sniffing rush, and toking joints at school. After punching holes in the bathroom wall of a teen club called Skully's, I got a job there as a bouncer. Friday and Saturday nights were spent drinking, getting high, and partying with the 'Rockies' - the people who attended the Rocky Horror Picture Show - who frequented Skully's after the movie.

With live teenage bands rocking out the sound of "Breaking the Chains," I would sit wearing black tanktop, camouflage fatigues, high tops, bandanas, and eye liner, drinking beer from plastic cups, and smoking cigarettes while my new girlfriend, Angel, would eye me from across the table wearing a black and red spandex unitard, black knee-high boots, my white vest and black hat, and a choke collar and dog leash from her neck.

We danced, borrowed back seats from our friends before I got my pickup, and slept together. We would get high, talk about life, and remain the center of attention at Skully's.

Satanism had become our lifestyle. It was no longer something bragged about, or showed off. It was serious to us and the center of our lives. I continued to study and perform nightly rituals taking more and more speed to keep going. The Elimination had disbanded, leaving me to pursue my own, more mature, practices, including a worship of the dead, again in combination with Ninjutsu, as I searched for true enlightenment.

And here I was. I wasn't happy. The blood, drugs, sex, hate, all of it had become boring. But I knew no other way. I had searched everywhere and come up empty. My life stunk. I was angry with my parents. I continually thought about suicide. I just wanted out.

I sat there in my pickup wishing I had either the guts to blow my brains out, or for a way to find a new world and leave everything behind. I had been up for three days. I was out of speed. Tonight I would get some sleep.

I drove home, did some homework, performed a ritual, and slept. My next clear memory is a jail cell two days later. I had taken my father's .44 revolver and shot both my parents in the head as they slept. In a year, the memories of that night would haunt me. I had stood in front of my mother's convulsing body watching blood pour from a hole in her face, and laughed in a hideous giggle. I had felt relieved, as if the world's oppression had been lifted from my shoulders. But for now, all I knew was that my life was destroyed.

I had given Satan everything, and now I sat in a jail cell without a family. I no longer wanted to be a Satanist, and as I renounced Satan in my mind, and old familiar voice spoke with me. Suicide. I would kill myself. Only my genuine love for Angel prevented me.

Two days later a man came to the cell next to mine. He gave me a Bible and I opened it to read without knowing why. I had mutilated Bibles, burned them, urinated on them, poured blood on them, but now, for the first time I read one - without any ulterior motives I read just because something seemed to say to me, "Search."

As I opened the paperback book and read from Psalms, an overwhelming sense of guilt fell upon me. I had been wrong. Satan had lied to me. It was God, not Satan, who truly loved me.

I had cursed and cussed God. I had knelt at an altar of Satan covered in blood, full of hate toward the Creator. And still, my God loved me. I felt a new presence wanting to descend on me, crying for me to let it in. On my knees I fell and prayed really for the first time. "Lord, here I am again. If you will take me back, I will serve you." God touched me, honoring that prayer, and I began to cry. I cried for two hours not caring who saw me. And when I slept, it was the first peaceful night's sleep I'd had in a year and a half. I awoke knowing everything would be okay.

I had no idea what would happen. I didn't care. It didn't matter, because in that one moment all things unspoken I had searched for were found in my Jesus. I had been forgiven and given an uncomprehensible peace. At that moment, I knew true love and realized all I had sought all along was only this, and finally I was free.

Satan gave me Death Row, but I refuse acceptance of all I received from the Devil. God has given me dreams and love and purpose. Satan took my family, but God has restored and given me a new one.

I speak from experience.

HEXAGRAM - Also known as the Star of David or the Crest of Solomon. this symbol was used by the Egyptians long before the Israelis adopted it. The Jews began using the Star of David during their Babylonian Captivity and now has a definite Jewish meaning which cannot be condemned, however, it is one of the most potent symbols used in the working of the powers of darkness. It is they symbol used in the work of magic - in the conjuring of forces that hypnotize and seduce. Evil spirits gather in force at the summons of the person working the "Hex".

ANKH - Symbolizes the fertility rites and the building up of lust within a person. A spirit of lust is the power of this union of male and female representations. Sometimes called the "Long Life Seal." Practitioners of witchcraft that devise sexual abuse wear the ankh with a star.
