Focus Passage: Isaiah 53:11

Out of the anguish of his soul he shall see and be satisfied;
by his knowledge shall the righteous one, my servant,
make many to be accounted righteous,
and he shall bear their iniquities.

1) Describe a time when you saw someone exhausted. What was it that exhausted the person? Was it work, trouble, emotion, competition?

2) When you think about that person, and what they went through, do you think he or she would say that the end result was worth the effort?

3) According to Isaiah 53:11, is the trouble predicted there “worth it?”

4) What is the trouble predicted and what reality provides a measure of its value?

5) How does the “knowledge” mentioned in this passage give you endurance as you live the Christian faith?
