Welcome to Mt Calvary Lutheran Church! We pray that you will be blessed, comforted, and given true, lasting peace as you worship. As we gather, we prepare our hearts for worshipping and praising our Lord and Savior by remembering what the Scriptures say: “I was glad when they said to me, ‘Let us go to the house of the Lord!’” Psalm 122:1 and “One thing have I asked of the Lord...that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the Lord and to inquire in his temple.” Psalm 27:4.

TO OUR VISITORS

THE LORD’S EXPECTATION OF THE MEMBERS OF MT. CALVARY

In the glad confession of the Christian faith the Lord expects that every member attends Worship and receives the Lord’s Supper faithfully. The Lord expects every member to be involved in Christ-centered education, (Bible Study); The Lord expects every member to be a missionary of Christ to our community; and that every member is a faithful steward and disciple for the honor and glory of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Livestream worship services will be available Sunday mornings.

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST: Jesus Is Our Good Samaritan The Law commands that “you shall love the Lord your God” with all your heart, soul, mind and strength (Luke 10:27), and that you shall “love your neighbor as yourself” (Leviticus 19:18). Love fulfills the Law because love does no harm to the neighbor. Christ Jesus is the Good Samaritan, who with divine compassion saves you from all evil. He takes your sin and death upon Himself and bears these in His body to the cross. He binds up your wounds with the healing balm of His Gospel, and He brings you into His Church, where He takes care of you at His own expense (Luke 10:34–35). By such mercy, He proves “to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers” (Luke 10:36). Therefore, “you go, and do likewise” (Luke 10:37).

Sunday Morning Adult Bible Study: Pastor Sattgast leads the Adult Bible Class this Sunday. We return to our study of St. Paul's Letter to the Romans. It is the longest of St. Paul's letters (epistle's) and contains the most in-depth explanations of our Christian teachings found in any of his letters. This is especially true of his explanation of the doctrine of justification by grace through faith in Christ Jesus, the central teaching of our faith. Although St. Paul wrote to the Romans nearly 2,000 years ago, the teachings he presented and the concerns he addressed are just as pressing in our day as they were when he first wrote.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS Preschool through 6th grade will go to the opening in the sanctuary from 9:15 to 9:30 a.m. then to the basement to their respective classrooms for Sunday school class. 7th through 12th graders and their parents are invited to participate in the Middle School / High School Sunday School class. We will be meeting at 9:15 a.m. in the Boardroom. All 7th-12th graders and their parents are welcome to attend.

A NOTE ABOUT OUR LIVE STREAMING Due to the recent events at Mt. Calvary and the software the church is using, we were not able to stream either the Worship Services or the Adult Bible Class for two Sundays. We will be streaming the worship services and Bible study again starting on July 13th. The recordings are available of the services and Bible classes for the past two Sundays. We regret the inconvenience this situation has caused.

Lutheran Family Service

The afternoon of Sunday, July 6 Rev. Max Phillips and counselors from Lutheran Family Service were here for a congregational meeting to discuss what happens during times of trauma in people's lives and in congregations as well as provide Biblical help and resources that are available during such times as we are experiencing at Mt. Calvary. The counselors from LFS were available to meet with individuals or families wanting to talk or get more information. LFS is available to provide crisis intervention support to our congregation during this difficult time. We are grateful for their compassionate care and expertise in helping us navigate this difficult season. If you or someone you know needs more or continued emotional or spiritual support, you may contact Lutheran Family Service at (515) 573-3138 or at lutheranfamilyservice.org.

Our South Dakota District partners with LFS and, along with many congregations and individuals, helps provide support for its services which include unplanned pregnancy support, marriage counseling, mental health counseling, Christian adoption services, church worker wellness, and youth and elderly outreach.

Dear friends, if you would like to know who your elder is for your family, there is a binder located in the mailbox outside the church office. Of course, you are always free to reach out to the elder with whom you are most comfortable.

Several people have expressed interest in having a prayer chain again at Mt. Calvary, including the members of the LWML. So we are resuming this ministry at Mt. Calvary.

If you would like to be included in the prayer chain so you can receive the prayer requests and pray with others who are praying, please contact me at MCLCprayers@gmail.com. I will then add your name to the list of email contacts to whom I will send requests. As a general guideline, there is no need to respond to any prayer request that is sent out, other than to, of course, pray. Also, it is important that we maintain confidentiality and not share "gossip".

And if you have a prayer request, you may email your request to MCLCprayers@gmail.com. If you don't have access to email, you may contact me, or you can leave a message at Mt. Calvary. When you make a prayer request, you do not necessarily have to share the person's name or any other personal information.

We pray for God's wisdom and that the prayer chain will be a blessing to all those involved.

Debbie Sattgast, Prayer Chain Chairman

Thank you to those who came for the Church Cleaning/Work Day on Saturday, June 14th

We appreciate your help in finishing up the tasks.
