TODAY WE CELEBRATE THE LORD'S SUPPER

Holy Communion is celebrated at all services every Sunday and on special festivals. This Sacrament is the means by which Jesus Christ, the bread of life, gives us his flesh and blood to eat and drink. In this Meal, Jesus forgives our sins, gives us victory over death and Satan, and delivers his eternal salvation to us. Since this is the true body and true blood of Jesus Christ in, with and under the bread and wine, we do not treat this sacrament lightly; rather, we receive it with great reverence and gratitude to our merciful Savior. Moreover, St. Paul writes: "Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty concerning the body and blood of the Lord. Let a person examine himself, then, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment on himself (1 Cor. 11:27-29)." An order of self-examination is located on pages 329-330 of your hymnal.

To ensure that all who participate in this sacrament receive this sacred gift as the blessing it is intended to be and not to their condemnation, this congregation, with Christian love and in accordance with Holy Scripture, practices closed communion with those who have been instructed and share our public profession of the Christian faith in all its articles. We therefore ask our guests who wish to commune to speak with the Pastor before the service.

We provide both the common cup and individual cups. The individual cups in the center of tray are alcohol free for those with medical requirements that prevent them from receiving alcohol. Wine, however, is the preferred means to receive the blood of Christ, if and when possible, since wine is what Jesus used to institute this sacrament. Likewise, we use unleavened bread, as our Lord did. Gluten-free hosts are also available for those with medical needs. Please alert the Pastor or an Elder of any needs.

Exhortation

Romans 6:9; Matthew 28:7; Hebrews 2:7–8; Psalm 118:24, adapted

- P We know that Christ being raised from the dead will never die again;
C death no longer has dominion over Him.
- P Christ has risen from the dead.
C God the Father has crowned Him with glory and honor, putting everything in subjection under His feet.
- P This is the day that the Lord has made;
C let us rejoice and be glad in it.
- P Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.
- P I will go to the altar of God,
C to God my exceeding joy.
- P Our help is in the name of the Lord,
C who made heaven and earth.
- P I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord,
C and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

Kneel/Sit Silence for reflection on God's Word and for self-examination.

Confession and Absolution

- P Let us confess our sins to God, our merciful Father.
C Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, I confess to You my sinfulness. My very nature has been corrupted by sin and is unclean. I have done the evil You forbid and have not done the good You demand. I am truly sorry for my sins and repent of them. Have mercy on me, gracious Father.
- P God has promised forgiveness of sins to those who repent and turn to Him. God keep you in His grace by the Holy Spirit and grant you a blessed life on earth and finally a glorious eternal Easter vision of the Savior and a full and complete life with Him in heaven forever. As a called and ordained servant of Christ and by His authority, I therefore forgive you all of your sins in the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.
- C Amen.

Old Testament Reading

Isaiah 25:6-9

⁶On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wine, of rich food full of marrow, of aged wine well refined. ⁷And he will swallow up on this mountain the covering that is cast over all peoples, the veil that is spread over all nations. ⁸He will swallow up death forever; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken. ⁹It will be said on that day, "Behold, this is our God; we have waited for him, that he might save us. This is the LORD; we have waited for him; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation."

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Epistle

1 Corinthians 15:1–11

¹Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, ²and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain.

³For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, ⁴that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, ⁵and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. ⁶Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. ⁷Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. ⁸Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. ⁹For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. ¹⁰But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. ¹¹Whether then it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

Holy Gospel

Mark 16:1–8

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the sixteenth chapter.

C Glo - ry be to Thee, O Lord.

¹When the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of James and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. ²And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. ³And they were saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance of the tomb?" ⁴And looking up, they saw that the stone had been rolled back—it was very large. ⁵And entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and they were alarmed. ⁶And he said to them, "Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen; he is not here. See the place where they laid him. ⁷But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going before you to Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you." ⁸And they went out and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had seized them, and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

G Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

Nicene Creed

C I believe in one God,
the Father Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth
and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
begotten of His Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light,
very God of very God,
begotten, not made,
being of one substance with the Father,
by whom all things were made;
who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary
and was made man;
and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate.
He suffered and was buried.
And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures
and ascended into heaven
and sits at the right hand of the Father.
And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead,
whose kingdom will have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord and giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified,
who spoke by the prophets.
And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church,
I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins,
and I look for the resurrection of the dead
and the life \dagger of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer of the Church

P As we celebrate this day of resurrection, let us pray for the whole people of God in Christ Jesus and for all people according to their needs.

We pray for the whole Church, that the message of salvation be joyfully proclaimed throughout all the world, and we pray for ourselves, gathered around the Good News of the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ, the source of our strength and life. Lord, in Your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

P We pray for the nations of the world, that their governments and their leaders bring blessing to those who are governed, and that security and well-being be experienced in every place. Lord, in Your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

P We pray for ourselves in this season of Easter, that we be people who radiate the light of Christ and continually share Easter joy in our homes, workplaces, and communities. Lord, in Your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

- P We pray for all who serve us through their callings, especially for those who deal with special challenges or dangers on a regular basis, including police, fire, and emergency personnel. We also remember the military forces of our nation, those stationed both at home and abroad, whose selfless and sacrificial efforts serve to defend our nation. Lord, in Your mercy,
- C hear our prayer.
- P We pray for those with special concerns and needs this day, especially for our brothers and sisters of this congregation at Mt. Pisgah. Pour out your mercy upon those who are hospitalized, those who grieve, the unemployed and underemployed, the chronically ill and shut-in, and those for whom the joy of Easter is missing in some way. Bless them, merciful Father, that they would acknowledge Your presence in their lives and, encouraged by our acts of care, would find strength and hope for each day. Lord, in Your mercy,
- C hear our prayer.
- P Merciful God, we bless You for having placed into our lives faithful Christian people to guide us. On this Easter Day of resurrection, we remember those no longer among us here, who have completed their earthly lives and have won the final victory in Christ. Lead us to follow their example of faith and faithfulness, that in the end we shall rejoice together eternally at Your Table and celebrate eternally in that place You have prepared for all who love You. Lord, in Your mercy,
- C hear our prayer.
- P These things and all else You know we need for which we should have asked in our petitions this day, grant us, gracious Lord, for the sake of our risen Savior, Jesus Christ, who lives and rules with You and the Holy Spirit, today and forever.
- C Amen.

Preface

LSB 194

P The Lord be with you.

C And with thy spir - it.

P Lift up your hearts.

C We lift them up un - to the Lord.

P Let us give thanks un - to the Lord, our God.

C It is meet and right so to do.

P It is truly meet, right, and salutary that we should at all times and in all places give thanks to You, holy Lord, almighty Father, everlasting God. And most especially are we bound to praise You on this day for the glorious resurrection of Your Son, Jesus Christ, the very Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us and bore the sins of the world. By His dying He has destroyed death, and by His rising again He has restored to us everlasting life. Therefore with Mary Magdalene, Peter and John, and with all the witnesses of the resurrection, with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven we laud and magnify Your glorious name, evermore praising You and saying:

The Words of Our Lord

LSB 197

- P Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night when He was betrayed, took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it and gave it to the disciples and said: "Take, eat; this is My ✠ body, which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me."

In the same way also He took the cup after supper, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, saying: "Drink of it, all of you; this cup is the new testament in My ✠ blood, which is shed for you for the forgiveness of sins. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."

 I know that my Redeemer lives!

Mary ran to tell Peter and John what she had found.
What happened?

Begin at the T.
Write every other letter on the lines.
Then start with the A and go around again, writing every other letter.
