DISCIPLESHIP THOUGHTS

Luke 10:20b – “But rejoice that your names are written in heaven.” No one can snatch us out of the nail-marked hands of Jesus. He has redeemed us and claimed us as His own. As those whose names are written in heaven, we seek to live heavenly lives here on earth. This is the foundation of all our good works, including the good work of faithfully supporting the work of the church. It’s our joy in having been redeemed by the Lord through the activity of the church that motivates us to support it.

Life Thoughts from Lutherans for Life

July 6 – Pentecost IV (Proper 9C) – Our Lord Jesus Christ has the courage to speak warning to His country’s culture and communities (Luke 10:13-15). He whose eyes keep watch on national happenings (Psalm 66:7) knows no other way to restore ones He loves. Only abandoning evil allows anyone to embrace the Gospel’s comfort (Isaiah 66:13, 15-16!) and joy (Luke 10:19-20). May our sanctity of life witness follow His lead!

July 13 airing

This is the Life – “A Face from the Past” – A man struggles to come to terms with the memory and feelings of guilt with his estranged father.

Worship Service – Rev. Michael Awe of Hope Lutheran Church in South Sioux City, NE, delivers the message “I AM the Lord!” based on Leviticus 18:1-5; 19:9-18.

Lutheran
Family Service

Building Healthy Families: Parents, grandparents and pew buddies! Martin Luther reportedly once said something to the effect of “When you wash your face, remember your baptism!” With warmer temperatures and (sometimes) more relaxed schedules, this time of year brings with it an increase in swimming, running through sprinklers and otherwise splashing about in various water sources. As you and your family are refreshed by such water play, take the opportunity to remind one another that you’re baptized and beloved children of God, washed in the waters of Holy Baptism, and “heirs having the hope of eternal life” (Titus 3:5-7). Lutheran Family Service
