Closing Song
Turn Your Eyes

1. Review this week's Catechism Question and Answer.
2. Does the vision of God in Amos 9:1-4 comfort or disturb you? Why?
3. Consider the phrase "Redemption without Relationship"...why do people secretly crave this from God? What Gospel truths show us this is not what God desires?
4. Why does God's fatherly discipline always in some way require destruction? (i.e., what is God's design for such "destruction?")
5. What might this "destruction" look like in the life of the believer? How should this color our response to God's personal discipline on us?
6. Thought Question: Consider and discuss how you might explain to a non-believer how God's absolute judgment upon sinners is not merely an expression of His holiness, but also an expression of His merciful love for His own people.

EQUIP U CLASS – BIBLICAL CONFLICT RESOLUTION

Conflicts. We all have them. And many of us have trouble resolving them. We want to resolve our own, and help others do so; but how does that happen? God's Word gives principles and power for understanding and resolving conflicts in a way that glorifies God and restores, love, joy and peace to relationships. Starting Jan 14, we will begin a 6-week study on this much needed topic so that we can be the peacemakers Jesus says are blessed. Here are some details:

Where: Sojourner Flock Room

When: Sunday nights, Jan 14 – Feb 25 (except Jan 28)

Class Length: 6:00-7:30 pm

Homework: 8-12 pages of reading/week
Families encouraged to attend – ages 12 & up!

Nursery available, but we must know if you are bringing nursery age children.

If you are planning to attend, or have questions about this Equip U instruction, please contact Terry Devitt by email tdevitt@cox.net, or call 918-693-6955.
