BRINGING GOD'S WORD TO LIFE

April 15, 2018

Romans 13:9

For this, "You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet," and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this saying, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

What does God require in the sixth, seventh, and eighth commandments?

Sixth, that we do not hurt, or hate, or be hostile to our neighbor, but be patient and peaceful, pursuing even our enemies with love.

Seventh, that we abstain from sexual immorality and live purely and faithfully, whether in marriage or in single life, avoiding all impure actions, looks, words, thoughts, or desires, and whatever might lead to them.

Eighth, that we do not take without permission that which belongs to someone else, nor withhold any good from someone we might benefit.

Closing Song
Redeemed

1. Who have you been tempted to give up on and what circumstances brought you to this point?
2. What actions are we likely to engage in when we are hopeful that God will reach another person? How might our actions change when we lose hope?
3. Why might it be important for Christians to recognize the hopeless state they themselves were in before they were transformed by Christ?
4. How does society wrongly portray demons and Satan? Do you think these portrayals are harmless? Why or why not?
5. Have you experienced 1 Peter 4:4 yourself? What did that look like? How did you respond?
6. What is the difference between these two statements, "but for the grace of God go I" and "before for the grace of God, there was I"?
