BRINGING GOD'S WORD TO LIFE

May 27, 2018

Romans 3:28

For we maintain that a man is justified by faith apart from works of the Law.

Can anyone keep the law perfectly?

Since the fall, no mere human has been able to keep the law of God perfectly, but consistently breaks it in thought, word, and deed.

Hymn of Meditation

1. What in your own life tempts you to exalt self? In that case, how would exaltation of self not be in touch with reality (see 1 Cor 4:7)?
2. Name as many consequences as you can of self-exaltation. Think about both near-term and long-term consequences. Think about consequences for self and for others.
3. Share how God has used a particular thorn in your own life to remind you of your weakness and to lead you to greater levels of trust in Him.
4. Thorns don't automatically drive us to God. What might be some wrong ways that we react to the pain of thorns? What are the results of such responses?
5. Read the account of King Uzziah in 2 Chronicles 26:1-21. How would you generally describe Uzziah's character? What was it that led to him sinning so presumptuously against God? How might this instruct us on times that we are most vulnerable?
6. How do you think we will view thorns from heaven's perspective? With that in mind, how is God's grace truly better than relief?
