Closing Song
Ancient Words

1. Which would you prefer - a complete body of written prophecies, or prophets who continually gave new prophecies for your situation? Why?
2. What are some things you could "neglect" in order to keep from "neglecting" the reading and meditation in God's Word?
3. "To fail to plan is to plan to fail." Discuss together your various plans for reading / meditating in God's Word. Discuss the benefits of each, and what else helps you?
4. How might you help others in your church be able to better evaluate / avoid errant Bible teaching and teachers?
5. Thought Question: BCO has 25+ formal teachers every week, and many more who rotate with them. Square the caution of James 3:1 with the need and calling for many teachers in the church (Rom 15:14, Heb 5:12, 1 Thess 5:14, 2 Tim 2:15, 24-25). What are some characteristics of good Bible teachers?
