Therefore, He had to be made like His brethren in all things, so that He might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people.

~Hebrews 2:17

Why must the Redeemer be truly human?

That in human nature he might on our behalf perfectly obey the whole law and suffer the punishment for human sin; and also that he might sympathize with our weaknesses.

God promises to send the Messiah - Gen 3:15; 12:1-3; 49:10; Isa 7:14; Micah 5:2

Principle: God fulfills His promises, and Jesus is the Messiah

Ask your Child: What promises about Jesus are in Genesis? Who were the prophets?

Apply: By worshiping Jesus, the Deliverer, Savior, and King. By humbly obeying Christ, the King.

Closing Song
Grace

1. "Greeting time" at church seems awkward for some - why is that and how might you help make it less so?
2. "True Christian living and true Christian worship are mutually dependent upon one another." Evaluate this statement. What are the implications?
3. In 1 Th 3, Paul sent Timothy back because he knew the Thessalonians were being tempted to quit. Anyone with whom you can take this kind of action with right now? (see 5:14 also)
4. 1 Th 5:4-6 - read. Consider how Eph 5:1-14, 1 Pet 4:1-11 might inform what it means to live as "sons of day."
5. What specific actions and/or motivations of Paul in this letter might you emulate in pursuing serving others on behalf of Christ?

ANNOUNCEMENTS

YEAR END GIVING PROJECT: LONG-TERM FACILITY

In view of our long-term facility needs, we know that additional property will be the first need on the horizon. While we are still seeking to determine the "where," we know land will be a wise investment toward meeting our future needs and anticipate purchasing land in 2019. In this venture, we all have a strategic opportunity to partner together for the long-term good of our local church. As the Lord lays on your heart to give, you can contribute to the "Building Fund" at BCO. Please continue in prayer for wisdom and the Lord to provide for our needs.
