BRINGING GOD'S WORD TO LIFE

January 27, 2019

If You, LORD, should mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand? But there is forgiveness with You, That You may be feared.

~Psalm 130:3-4

Does Christ's death mean all our sins can be forgiven?

Yes, because Christ's death on the cross fully paid the penalty for our sin, God graciously imputes Christ's righteousness to us as if it were our own and will remember our sins no more.

God ordains the Tabernacle - Exodus 25:1-27:19; 30:1-10

Principle: God has made a way for us to dwell with Him.

Ask your Child: What does the tabernacle tell us about God?

Apply: By worshiping God in an honoring way.

Romans 1:16-17 - Not Ashamed

Closing Song

Jesus I My Cross Have Taken

1. How is shame used to expose your greatest allegiance? Given our mixed allegiances at times, consider the grace in Hebrews 2:12, 11:16.
2. What shames does the world cast on the Gospel and those who believe and promote it? How might you answer each of these?
3. How does the example of Jesus in Hebrews 12:1-3 help you deal with shame in the Gospel?
4. "The righteousness of God" - look for every instance of "righteousness" in Romans 4... What does this teach about the connection between righteousness and faith?
5. The world says "shame on you" because the Gospel can't be seen / proven. How are you to answer? How does that answer direct life with God?
