In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of His grace

~Ephesians 1:7

Does Christ's death mean all our sins can be forgiven?

Yes, because Christ's death on the cross fully paid the penalty for our sin, God graciously imputes Christ's righteousness to us as if it were our own and will remember our sins no more.

God punishes Israel's idolatry - Exodus 32:1-35

Principle: God is merciful and patient.

Ask your Child: How did God show mercy to the Israelites?

Apply: By thanking God for His specific acts of mercy.

Romans 1:16-17 - Not Ashamed, Pt. 2

Closing Song

1. How can you gain confidence in the Gospel and in your role as a Gospel witness?
2. How would you answer someone who said, "Shame on you for saying your gospel is the only way of salvation?"
3. 1 Peter presents 3 types of suffering: in spite of doing good (2:18-20), for doing good (3:13-17), for being a Christian (4:14-16). How do the surrounding verses teach you to respond?
4. If more evidence / reasoning won't change a rebel heart, what helpful purposes might there be for still providing evidences to someone?
5. How might you respond if someone scoffs that you cannot prove the Gospel is true?

A New Building is on the Horizon

As announced at the Annual Meeting, we have determined to seek land upon which to build a future new facility for BCO!

Two ways we can all be involved at this point...

- 1) Pray with us as we actively search for a piece of property and begin the design process, for unity and favor from the Lord
 - 2) Consider how you might sacrificially begin giving toward the Building Fund in anticipation of this work
- We are truly excited for a clear direction and about all that the Lord will do in and through BCO in the days ahead!
