Romans 2:1-16 - Need No Repentance, Pt. 1

Closing Song

Not In Me

1. What keeps people (you) from seeing the need for repentance? (be comprehensive)
2. What are some of the kindnesses (2:4) of God that lead you to repentance? How do you at times "think lightly" of them?
3. Paul clearly puts forward "works" in 2:5-12 as the basis for both judgment and eternal life (see also Mt 5:20, 48, 19:17, Jn 5:28-29). How do these statements fit with the Gospel of salvation by grace through faith?
4. How can we practically help our neighbors who think they need no repentance see their need of the Gospel? How might v. 12-16 help?
