VERSES

The One forming light and creating darkness, causing well-being and creating calamity; I am the LORD who does all these. - Isaiah 45:7

Therefore we do not lose heart, but though our outer man is decaying, yet our inner man is being renewed day by day. - 2 Corinthians 4:16

And He who sits on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new." And He *said, "Write, for these words are faithful and true." - Revelation 21:5

Just as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and blameless before Him. - Ephesians 1:4

In love He predestined us to adoption as sons through Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the kind intention of His will, - Ephesians 1:5

But we should always give thanks to God for you, brethren beloved by the Lord, because God has chosen you from the beginning for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and faith in the truth - 2 Thessalonians 2:13

So it will be at the end of the age; the angels will come forth and take out the wicked from among the righteous... - Matthew 13:49

And will throw them into the furnace of fire; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth - Matthew 13:50

"He who believes in the Son has eternal life; but he who does not obey the Son will not see life, but the wrath of God abides on him. - John 3:36

CATECHISM

What else does Christ's death redeem?

Christ's death is the beginning of the redemption and renewal of every part of fallen creation, as he powerfully directs all things for his own glory and creation's good.

Are all people, just as they were lost through Adam, saved through Christ?

No, only those who are elected by God and united to Christ by faith. Nevertheless God in his mercy demonstrates common grace even to those who are not elect, by restraining the effects of sin and enabling works of culture for human well-being.

What happens after death to those not united to Christ by faith?

At the day of judgment they will receive the fearful but just sentence of condemnation pronounced against them. They will be cast out from the favorable presence of God, into hell, to be justly and grievously punished, forever.
