Closing Song
Take My Life and Let It Be Consecrated

1. What difficulties and challenges do people face when they believe their worth/value is tied to themselves or their circumstances? (Ephesians 2:1-3, 12)
2. How would you describe the "excellencies of Him?" Does this include all of His attributes? Does this include all of His actions? If not, what should be left out?
3. What are ways believers can guard themselves from being attached to worldly lusts? What subtle ways does the world we live in make us think that this is home and that we are not sojourners?
4. In what ways do evildoers "see" the believer's good deeds? What deeds should be visible and what deeds should be done in secret? How does this work in one's personal life and does this apply to the corporate church body as a whole? If yes, then what does that look like?

Parents: Children are always welcome to sit quietly in our Worship Together. If their activity or sounds begin to hinder the worship of others, we ask you escort them out in the spirit of Romans 12:10.
