Genesis 7 - How God Deals With the 'Problem of Evil'

Closing Song
O Great God

1. Why is it significant that Genesis isn't concerned with justifying God's judgment, but instead is concerned with justifying God's mercy? How might this help us in considering / engaging the 'problem of evil?'
2. What are some helpful ways to address sincere appeals to the 'problem of evil?'
3. How is an awareness of God's remarkable patience towards you informing your attitude toward others? Or is it?
4. What effect does a consideration of the vivid picture of judgment and rescue in Genesis 7 have on you?
5. How are you cultivating and enjoying the privilege of walking with God?
6. How do you plan to tell others in your life about the future judgment and present rescue in Christ alone?

Parents: Children are always welcome to sit quietly in our Worship Together. If their activity or sounds begin to hinder the worship of others, we ask you escort them out in the spirit of Romans 12:10.
