Messenger of Peace

Live Free

Read 1 Peter 3:13-22 & Psalm 66

For Christ also suffered once for sins...

That He might bring us to God. 1 Peter 3:18

Though a grateful resident of the Granite State, I am kind of vexed by our state motto. "Live free or die" evokes a sense of fierce independence. Crazy thing: in 1974, George Maynard, for religious reasons, covered up the "or die" part of the motto on his license plate. A violation was issued, New Hampshire took him to court, and George lost. So much for letting a citizen express his revolutionary spirit! (The US Supreme Court later ruled in favor of Maynard.) We come into this world kicking and screaming that life is all about us. It's a condition we never outgrow. But in the wake of such rugged individualism lie broken lives and relationships. In both family and society, we continuously see the wreckage from the sin of being turned in on oneself. Into the fray, our Savior, Jesus, graciously descends. Through His selfless sacrifice, the one relationship that matters most is restored. As a result, a new freedom is borne, one in which we are now free to love and prayerfully live out our faith in joy and service to all. This does not happen on its own. It takes the one who gave up His freedom so that we might truly be free, dying to self and living toward God. In both family and society, let us go and do like wise.

Precious Savior, Jesus, as You died for me, enable me today to live freely for You and others. Amen

Membership Covenant

In order for the congregation and the Leadership to deal effectively with issues in the congregation, the following guidelines are to be followed:

- 1. All members affirm their right to express their opinions about the life and ministry of the congregation.
- 2. The congregation operates with a direct democracy form of government that allows members to share their opinions directly with the pastor, leadership, committees, and congregational meetings.
- 3. When members of the congregation express an opinion to leadership, the leadership person shall ask, 'What would you like me to do with this information?'
- 4. When members of the congregation express an opinion to a leadership team member, the member shall be invited to bring the information/opinion to the next council/leadership meeting. The time and date shall be given.
- 5. If the member does not wish to appear in person, the leadership member shall ask the member for permission to use their name in reporting. If permission is not given, the leadership member shall say, "I'm sorry, but I will not be able to report this to the council since we do not deal with anonymous letters or comments."
- 6. If permission is given, the leadership member shall report the information / opinion to the leadership team and use the member's name.
- 7. At his/her discretion, a leadership member may ask that the member refer this issue to another member for presentation.
- 8. Each issue shall be placed on the agenda and written in the minutes along with the action taken by the leadership. Action may include: "Received as information," "Pastor and/or President to visit member and report at next meeting," etc.
- 9. Opinions may be shared in writing with the council and shall be handled in the above-mentioned manner if the letter or statement is signed. While the covenant uses language regarding the leadership team, the same procedures apply to all boards and committees. May the Spirit give us grace to grow as a healthy congregation.
