

Isaiah Chapter 48

How does God begin chapter 48?

How does God describe these people He is talking to?

Why does God say their “swear and confess” is “not in truth or right”?

What are the former things God is speaking about in verse 3?

What does this show us about our God?

How does God describe the people in verse 4?

What does this show us about humans?

Why did God predict the future for His people according to verse 5?

What are the people not “declaring” in verse 6?

What are the new things God is pointing them to?

Why does God create things now that we have not heard of before?

How did God know these people would be treacherous rebels?

What is the emphasis of “for my name’s sake”?

Why did God restrain His anger?

Why should Israel listen to God?

Who is God talking about in verses 14-15?

Who is speaking in the end of verse 16?

What is the imagery God uses in verses 17-19?

How does this remind us of God's amazing grace?

What is the beautiful Gospel of verses 20-21?

Why is verse 22, as a conclusion for this section, such a bold statement?

What are the main themes we have seen so far?

With these things in mind, how have these chapters changed or reshaped your view of God?

How have these chapters changed or reshaped your view of us as humans?

How have these chapters helped you better understand the Gospel of Jesus Christ?