Today we arrive in Rome. We meet our tour escort and drive to the close archaeological area of Ostia Antica: the harbor city of Ancient Rome. We explore the well-preserved excavations and step back in time into Roman antiquity. On the way back to Rome, we continue with our tour: we will be reminded of the early companions of Paul, travelling to the Church of Santa Prisca. Prisca came from a rich Roman family and Aquila, her husband, was probably Greek. Paul spent a couple of years with them in Corinth. The House on the Aventino Hill where Paul lived is named in a legal document of the 5th century, as "Titulus Priscae." We continue following the steps of St. Paul, recalling both his first and second visits to the city. Then we check-in at our hotel in Rome for dinner and overnight. (D)

DAY 3 – WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10: ROME

After breakfast, our day of sightseeing begins with a visit to the Insula Di San Paolo alla Regola. According to tradition, San Paolo Alla Regola is the most accredited, first home of Paul in Rome. Here he lived between A.D. 61 and 63, for eighteen months as required by law, pending trial. Then we reach the Capitoline Hill, once political and religious center of the town, which today is the seat of the Municipality. The stairway will lead us to the Piazza del Campidoglio, the magnificent result of a single project by Michelangelo, with a copy of the most famous equestrian statue in the world, the statue of Marcus Aurelius. Behind Piazza del Campidoglio we will find a natural terrace providing the best panoramic point over the valley of the Roman Forum and the Palatine Hill. Leaving the Roman Forum, we find the Arch of Constantine, erected to commemorate the victory of the emperor over Maxentius in the 4th century A.D. Then we end at the Colosseum, everlasting symbol of the greatness of Rome and the stage for the historical fights of the gladiators. Then we continue to the says that three different springs gushed out at each spot touched when Paul's head fell. We conclude our day in Rome by visiting the place where the bones of Paul have recently been found, and the Basilica of St. Paul Outside the Walls. It is a Benedictine Abbey which shares its name, origins and centuries

Ancient Appian Way, to visit the Catacombs of Santa Domitilla. Then we tour the Abbey of the Three Fountains, the place of Paul's martyrdom, where tradition of history, both joyful and sorrowful, with the adjoining basilica. Then we return to our hotel for dinner and overnight. (B, D)
