April 2023

When these things begin to take place, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near."
Luke 21:28

Do you watch "the News", listen to "the News", get "the News" updates on your phone? Do you rely on a particular "News source" or try to sample various sources? Do you say "I don't trust any news source" and then still sneak some into your life? Can you even help it or does "the News" invade your life wherever you are? We all receive more "news bits" – pieces of information – in a day than people a few decades ago did in a lifetime. Is it bad news or good news? Does knowing more make you feel more secure or less?

It seems the world is full of bad news – the latest war, disease, disaster (natural and man-made) – we are told to fear and prepare (presumably by continuing to tune in to that news source). Even if we could shut out and ignore world or national "news", we all have plenty of news that strikes closer to home – illness, job loss, troubled finances, relationships, and loss.

For the righteous will never be moved; he will be remembered forever. He is not afraid of bad news; his heart is firm, trusting in the LORD. Psalm 112:6-7

Maybe you hear Bible verses or Christian brothers and sisters tell you "don't be afraid" and you think "I can't help how I feel!" Feeling afraid is no sin – just like feeling happy, sad, or angry. It is not a question of how you feel, but what you do with the feelings. "In your anger do not sin." Ephesians 4:26 When you have positive feelings (like happiness) do you act on it and praise the Lord? When you have negative feelings (like anger) do you recognize it and pray for peace? The world tells us we cannot help our feelings, they are a basis (and excuse) for what we do. But God's truth is the opposite – when we act (in love, joy, peace...) even when we do not feel it, the actions often produce the feeling. (Yes, there are exceptions and it can sometimes take a long time, but generally that's how it works.)

It is very easy to be afraid of bad news and our fear often shows itself in anger and/or looking to ourselves to "fix it". But God reminds us that nothing is "news" to Him. God "makes nations great, and He destroys them; He enlarges nations, and leads them away" (Job 12:23). I form light and create darkness; I make well-being and create calamity; I am the LORD, who does all these things. (Isaiah 45:7). Nothing that happens is "news" to God, but He is the God of Good News. God keeps His promises as He did when He sent His angels to proclaim, "Fear not, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord" (Luke 2:10-11). More than thirty years later, Christ the Lord suffered and died on the cross to atone for the sins of the world. It seemed like bad news to the disciples. But on Easter morning, an angel announced the astonishing good news to the women who came to Jesus' tomb: "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. He is not here, for He has risen, as He said. Come, see the place where He lay" (Matthew 28:5-6).

As long as this fallen world endures, we will hear bad news. God's Word warns that the bad news will increase as the Last Day approaches. Even when we feel afraid, God's promises are sure in our crucified and Risen, Living Savior. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world. John 16:33 Jesus has conquered sin, death, and the devil for you. He promises His presence through the gift of the Holy Spirit. Like a child holding on to her Father's hand, we cling to God as His Good News resounds in our lives.

Clinging to God,
Pastor John

We have many faithful people at Prince of Peace willing to serve in many ways.

How has God gifted you to serve in His Church?

Can you pour a glass of juice? Can you read?

Can you pick up papers? Do you know anyone else with “special skills” like these? You can serve your church family! Contact Pastor John at any time!
