

REDEEMER LUTHERAN CHURCH Didsbury, Alberta

April 18 to April 30 2020

Our church is empty, but so is the Tomb. - By Vicar Wendel

It is a very different experience being in church, and only three people being present to run the service. However, as I look at the empty pews, I am reminded of a joyful occurrence. The vacant Tomb of Jesus. It also is empty, He has risen!

We can take comfort that the God we serve has overcome sin, death, and the devil. The current situation is not too much for Christ to handle. He has given His life for us so that even when we are in isolation, we are not alone. The One who was Master over the loneliness of the grave is always with us.

In their fright, the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; he has risen!" - Luke 24:5+6a

Sunday Services Online

April 19 & April 26 @ 10:30 am

Tuesday Bible Study Online

MARBL ES

Well, here is the cure..... Just smile and say...

Dear Lord,

I know you're watching over me
And I'm feeling truly blessed
For no matter what I pray for
You always know what's best!

I have this circle of E-mail friends,
Who mean the world to me;
Some days I 'send' and 'send,'
At other times, I let them be.

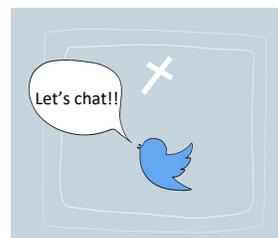

I am so blessed to have these friends,
With whom I've grown so close;
So this little poem I dedicate to them,
Because to me they are the 'Most'!

When I see each name download,
And view the message they've sent;
I know they've thought of me that day,
And 'well wishes' were their intent.

So to you, my friends, I would like to say,
Thank you for being a part;
Of all my daily contacts,
This comes right from my heart..

God bless you is my prayer today,
I'm honored to call you 'friend';
I pray the Lord will keep you safe,
Until we write again.

God Bless
Marlene Hunter

Dear Lord,

We pray for those that are in need right now, spiritually, physically and emotionally. Be with our friends, our family and our community, heal them, comfort them & embrace them with Your comforting Love.

May they find strength, peace and joy - Amen      Peace Be With You

LWMLC Report

Because of COVID –19 the Spring Retreat has been postponed for a year.

Some of our ladies would like to sew face masks to give to some of our community members, like store clerks or postal workers. If you would like to do this, please make sure you do the homework, so the masks will protect people and not give them a false sense of security. If you would like to help with supplies for the people sewing, you can drop it off at the church and they can be picked up there. Clean cotton fabric (sheets and pillowcases work too), elastic, ribbon and small zip lock bags will be needed. Please pack them in clean bags to be picked up.
