Shared Ministry Opportunities in...

Leadership

Involvement in church leadership is both an honor and a privilege. We are constantly looking for better ways for our church to serve its members, our community, and the world around us. To that end, Redeemer has several positions in leadership or as committee or team members that need to be filled by people willing to explore ways to keep us on track to do His will in accordance with our Strategic Ministry Plan.

The following leadership positions are highlighted herein:

Officer's of the Congregation

Mission and Ministry Council

Board of Elders

Finance Team

Fellowship Team

Harvest Team

Outreach Team

Prayer Team

Public Relations Team

Worship Team

Elected Positions

The following positions are elected by the Voters' Assembly. Each position has a two year term and individuals may serve no more than two full successive terms in that position without a break of at least one year. Specific duties are outlined in the Constitution. Elections are held in May of each year. Individuals interested in serving should notify the church office, or submit a volunteer form.

Officers of the Congregation:

- Chairperson
- Vice-Chairperson
- Treasurer
- Secretary

Mission and Ministry Council:

The Mission and Ministry Council consists of five members, elected at-large by the Congregation, plus the officers of the congregation. It is the chief governing Council of the congregation and develops and establishes policies governing the activities of the congregation, and those policies required to execute the goals approved by the Voter's Assembly.

This Council oversees and has authority over all other boards, committees, teams, and other entities of the congregation. Meetings are held quarterly at least.

Elders

Elders consist of seven or more male members nominated by the Senior Pastor. They assist the pastors as requested in specific functions such as administration of the sacraments, and matters of church discipline. They also see that the pastors and church workers are supported and cared for according to Holy Scripture. Training is provided.

Appointed & Volunteer Positions :

Leadership of the following teams are generally appointed by the Pastor, the Chairperson, or the Mission and Ministry Council. Members of the congregation may volunteer to serve on any team appropriate for them.
