Our Vision

Redeemer Lutheran Church is fully committed to meeting the needs of families with young children in our neighborhood.

We know that, "As you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to Me." (Matt. 25:40) We are called to nurture children inside our Little Steps Daycare ministry and Lincoln Elementary, providing social and spiritual support systems.

Our ambition is to be a church where children's lives are elevated through min istries that support parents, teachers and education programs.

For Communion, we believe that when Jesus said, "this is My Body," and "this is My Blood," we are actually receiving Him in the bread and wine. Please see the pew book, or seek out Pastor, for further explanation. There in non-alcoholic wine in the center of the trays for those who would prefer.

Today's Theme: Today we continue with the lesson from last week. We will be learning what Daniel did when facing an impossible situation. The king had asked him to interpret a tough dream. It almost got the king's wise men killed because they couldn't explain what the dream meant.

Stewardship

"For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us." -Romans 8:18

It is very easy to get caught up in the present and lose track of our ultimate destiny in the Kingdom of God. St. Paul encourages us to keep eternity in mind. This certainly has an application to our support for the Gospel. If we keep our focus on "the glory to be revealed," we will see our tithes and offerings in a new light.

Giving: $11,714.00 I'm gonna wrap my arms around know

my daddy's neck

And tell him that I've missed him

And tell him all about the man that I became And hope that it pleased him

There's so much I want to say There's so much I want you to

When I finally make it home

Then I'll gaze upon the throne of the King

Frozen in my steps

And all the questions that I swore I would ask Words just won't come yet

So amazed at what I've seen So much more than this old mind can hold

When I finally make it home

And the sweetest sound these ears have yet to hear The voices of the angels

When I finally make it home

Finally Home MercyMe

I will open my mouth in parables;
