IN REMEMBRANCE OF

THOSE WHO'VE BRIGHTENED OUR LIVES

1 John 3:1-3

See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure.

Women's Monday Bible Study

The Monday night women's Bible study meets in the narthex at 6:30 pm. All women are welcome to attend as we study selected Psalms.

Join us for fellowship and study! questions please see Ann Werk.

This group will be collecting mites for LWML (Lutheran Women's Missionary League) on the first Monday of each month. Mite boxes are available in the office if you would like to contribute to this great organization.

Wednesday Noon Bible Study

Wednesdays, the noon Bible study is going through a series on prayer. Entitled Theology and Practice of Prayer A Lutheran View, this study is from the LCMS Commission on Theology and Church Relations. Looking from the universality of pray to Lutheran attitudes of pray, this study examines what prayer is, why we do it, how it affects us, and what Jesus teaches us through prayer.

Sunday School/ IMPACT

Something for every child! Lil'k for kids 3 to 5 years old. Route 66 for 1st graders through 5th grade. Nursery for the wee ones!

"Heart's Desire"

Luke 2:36-38 - And there was a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was advanced in years, having lived with her husband seven years from when she was a virgin, and then as a widow until she was eighty-four. She did not depart from the temple, worshiping with fasting and prayer night and day. And coming up at that very hour she began to give thanks to God and to speak of Him to all who were waiting for the redemption of Jerusalem.

Luke goes out of his way to tell us about Anna's life. Anna basically lives at the temple; she is there at all hours, and while she may go "home" briefly to wash or change clothes, the temple is where you'll find her night and day, worshipping God. It is the place of her heart's desire—the presence of God.

There are many old saints like this—people whose deepest delight is in the Lord. They are always in church unless illness or disability prevents them. They know their Bibles better than you think you ever will! And they are the people you want to pray for you, because you can just sense that connection they have with God. Sound like someone you know?

But Anna had one thing left to hope for in her long life, and that was "the redemption of Jerusalem"—the coming of the Messiah, the birth of Jesus. She knew God's promises, and talked about them with other people who also loved the Lord. And then Jesus' parents brought Him in to be presented before the Lord.

What a day! Her heart's desire came true—to see and touch the Messiah, to know that Jesus was born to save His people. What a joy! Right away she began talking to people, telling them the good news. "There He is," she must have said. "Go and see." It was the crowning day of her life.

You, too, have a deepest heart's desire. What is it? Think for a little while. What would be the crowning moment of your life, if it happened? How does it relate to Jesus, who saved you?

THE PRAYER: Lord, You know my deepest desires. Turn them to You, so that I may be satisfied. Amen.
