mercy, and not sacrifice.' For I came not to call the righteous, but sinners." (Matthew 9:13) We will watch an episode and then discuss the Biblical topics raised the next week. If you missed season one, or our study based on season one, no worries—you know the story; you'll be able to catch up!

Wednesday Men's Bible Study

The Men's Bible Study are examining the book of Acts. Exploring the mission trips of Paul. They are currently closing in on the end of Acts, and are discussing what might be next for their study. They encourage all men of Redeemer to join them, as they seek His guidance through His Word.

Redeemer Choir

The Redeemer Choir will be rehearsing on March 2, 9, 16, 23, and 30 after Lent Services. April 6 & 13 after Lent Services. April 21st, May 12, 26 and June 9th all at 7:05pm.

Wednesday Noon Bible Study

Continuing a study based on Season two of the TV series The Chosen. This series is the first-ever multi-season series about life of Christ. It strives to show Jesus through the eyes of those that met Him. "Go and learn what this means, 'I desire out. In baptism, all things in our lives are brought under the gracious rule and reign of Jesus Christ. The story includes all of each of us. Christ is the single "big idea" in Paul's letter to the Colossians, and he will be the single big idea at the 2022 LCMS Youth Gathering. The Gathering is more than the five days of the event. The preparation process for the Gathering brings together young people and supportive adults to encourage each other in their baptismal identity. The Gathering provides young people a vision for the vastness of Christ's Church and equips them for vocational service as they continue their walk with Jesus.

If you'd like to go, or have questions about the Gathering, please contact Hallie or Billy

Redeemer Review

Have you seen the Redeemer Review? It's a weekly live stream hosted by Phil Kuhn, Pastor and Billy Brinkerhuff that outlines happenings in our church. They take a look at the past and upcoming sermon, there's a LittleSteps update, announcements, and sometimes an interview. There is quite a bit of information to help you stay informed about what your church is doing. If you've missed it, you can catch up with previous episodes on our YouTube channel.

If you have suggestions for the live stream, a person that you'd like to see interviewed, or topics you'd like to see covered just let us know (churchoffice@redeemerwa.rsaw.org)

New Texting Service

Redeemer has made the switchover from Flocknote to Church 360°. If you have not signed up for this new messaging service you may have missed some messages from your church.

We don't want you to miss out on anything, so please take a moment find the invitation email and click on "Sign Me Up". You should have received an email from automail@360members.com, with instructions about what you will need to do to be included in the new texting service. If you have not received such an email, please let us know. Your email on record may be incorrect or the message may have been lost in the spam. We'll be happy to send out another one to you. If you have any questions please see, text, or call Billy @ 574-528-0227 seriously...what are you waiting for.

Church Directory

You can go to the members only website anytime to update your family info, view church members addresses, phone numbers, emails, etc. However, since only members can see this info, an "invitation" needs to be initiated by the office. Please contact the office to receive this "invitation". Please contact the office for your invitation to view the members only website.

Weekly Devotion

Are you looking for a devotion!? Looking for a life-based email devotion? Then look no further than your email inbox! Every week Pastor writes a devotion 3 times a week (Monday, Wednesday and Friday) and emails them out as a 'blind copy' email devotion (your email address is not shown, all are private!).

If you would like to receive these devotions simply email Pastor and let him know!

Toy Drive

You may know, or have seen the Fear is a Liar signs for, Payton Slaymaker who died last year at the age of 10. in honor of National Payton Slaymaker Day, her little sister is hosting a toy drive now through Friday March 11. All toys collected will be taken to the Cincinnati Children's Hospital to comfort children undergoing treatment. Any new, unwrapped toy is acceptable (no stuffed toys and blankets please). Ages range from infants to teens, and they tend to need more toys for boys than girls. Toys can be brought to church and/or given to Christa Plew or Wendy Schroeder.

"Working Through Us"

Jeremiah 1:4-10 - Now the Word of the LORD came to me, saying, "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations." Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, I do not know how to speak, for I am only a youth." But the LORD said to me, "Do not say, 'I am only a youth'; for to all to whom I send you, you shall go, and whatever I command you, you shall speak. Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you to deliver you, declares the LORD." Then the LORD put out His hand and touched my mouth. And the LORD said to me, "Behold, I have put My Words in your mouth. See, I have set you this day over nations and over kingdoms, to pluck up and to break down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant."

Jeremiah was nervous when God called him to be His prophet. "I don't know how to speak," he said. "I'm just a youth." Jeremiah was right—he wasn't up to the job, and he knew it. So far, so true.

But he missed one thing—and God pointed it out. "I have put My words in your mouth," God said. It's as if God said, "Don't worry. It's not about you. It's about Me. You don't have to be smart enough or strong enough or good enough. I have put My words in your mouth, and they will do the job." And they did. Jeremiah spent the rest of his life speaking God's Word to the people. He did the job God had for him.

God has called you, too, to certain jobs. They may not be flashy jobs like being a prophet. More likely they are humble jobs—being a parent, a child, a spouse, a friend. You may be a caregiver, an encourager, a pray-er, a protector. You may even think that you have no job at all, because at this point in your life your role is mainly to receive care from others. But that's a job! And a hard one, at times.

What happens when you feel overwhelmed by your job, whatever it may be? You can turn to the same source of help Jeremiah did. "I have put My Word in your mouth," God said to him. "You aren't doing it alone." And to us He says, "I have put My Holy Spirit in your heart. You are not alone. I laid down My life at the cross to make you Mine, and I will not forsake you now. I will work through you, with all your faults and weaknesses, and I will bring glory to My Name."

Jesus never sends us out alone. He is always with us, and we can call on Him for help and strength and wisdom. Because He loves us and holds us up, we can do the difficult jobs we face—one step at a time, supported by Him.

Those who would like to receive the LWML Quarterly news magazine can do so by placing the $7 subscription fee in an envelope and placing it in the offering. Please mark the envelope with your name and mark it as LWML Quarterly. Please have this turned in by Sunday March 13th.
