Matthew 13:45-46 -
 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls, who, on finding one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had and bought it." Indeed, Jesus redeemed us, purchased us back from sin and death, with all that He had. We belong to Him now. Our generosity ought to imitate the out-sized generosity of Jesus.

BUILDING HEALTHY FAMILIES

Whether it's your growing awareness of the number of hours in your day tinged with anxiety or depression, or a gnawing feeling in your gut about the distance you're feeling from your spouse, know that you don't have to wait for a crisis to benefit from visiting with a Lutheran Family Service counselor! It's often easier to prevent a problem than to recover from one in full bloom. Pay attention to your mental, emotional, spiritual, and relational health. Talk to your pastor and trusted friends, read God's word, but remember (as the tee shirt says): It's okay to have Jesus and a therapist, too!

PRAYER REQUESTS

At the Conventions in Milwaukee (week of July 31st), a number of our pastors and laypeople in the LCMS South Dakota District will cast votes for President of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod...And so, the voters should pray about their decision. We should pray for them:

Lord Jesus, You are the Lord of the Church. At this important time in our church body, come among us with Your Holy Spirit to guide and direct us in our voting. We thank You for this privilege of choosing the one who is to serve as our President. Be with the voters. Remove mundane, earthly concerns from their thinking, and fill them instead with the wider vision of the needs of Your Kingdom. Grant that the man who is chosen will be numbered among those who carry Your name with honor and joy and humility and courage and faithfulness to You. Hear us, Lord, as You have so promised. Amen. --Rev. Dr. Scott Sailer, District President
