

Lent Week 5 | Guidance

One of the ways, in addition to scripture, and prayer, that we can experience guidance is through the community of believers God has given us. This week to practice guidance, have each child think of a question about faith or God that they might have. Then call a friend or family member and ask them that question. Then pray together about the question and ask the Holy Spirit to provide wisdom and understanding.