READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REMEMBER.

So many chapters of the Bible deserve deep and humble meditation, but John 4 may be one of the most significant. Reread John 4 three times. In-between each reading, pause to answer the reflection and responding questions.

Reflect:

What stands out?

As John writes this letter to his dear friends, imagine gathering with others to listen to it. What might be going on in the community it was written to?

How does hearing it help?

Respond:

What do you hear as a personal message in this? Which part spoke to your soul?

What else captures your imagination?

Remember:

Pick a verse from John 4 and commit to memorizing it.
