

Benediction

And now may He who by His Incarnation gathered into things earthly and heavenly, fill you with the sweetness of inward peace and goodwill; and the blessing God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you always. Amen. Now go forth in peace and joy, extending the peace of Christ to all you meet.

Lessons & Carols History

The Service of Lessons and Carols was first developed in the late nineteenth century by Archbishop Benson for use in King's College Chapel, Cambridge.

The service, which has as its focal point the coming of Christ, is characterized by a very simple pattern. It is ordered around Scripture readings that pertain to Christ's coming and birth, followed by songs (both choral and congregational) and prayers.

Since its first use and subsequent spread throughout the world, the service has been adapted in many ways, ranging from a very simple service of readings and congregational songs to an elaborate production.

Members of the congregation participate in the readings of the Scriptures and can be representational of the different church organizations from children to adults.

THE TABLE OF THE LORD

Words of Institution

Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night when he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to the disciples and said:
Take, eat; this is my ☐ body, which is given for you. This do in remembrance of me.

In the same way also he took the cup after supper, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying: Drink of it, all of you; this is my ☐ blood of the new testament, which is shed for you for the forgiveness of sins. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

P. The Lord be with you always.
C. and also with you.

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread,
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil; For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen
