CATECHETICAL LESSON Table of Duties: What the Hearers Owe Their Pastors- The Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should receive their living from the gospel. Anyone who receives instruction in the word must share all good things with his instructor. Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows. The elders who direct the affairs of the church well are worthy of double honor, especially those whose work is preaching and teaching. For the Scripture says, "Do not muzzle the ox while it is treading out the grain," and "The worker deserves his wages." We ask you brothers, to respect those who work hard among you, who are over you in the Lord and who admonish you. Hold them in the highest regard in love because of their work. Live in peace with each other. Obey your leaders and submit to their authority. They keep watch over you as men who must give an account. Obey them so that their work will be a joy, not a burden, for that would be of no advantage to you.

Introit

Cast your burden on the LORD, and he will sus- | tain you;*
 he will never permit the righteous to | be moved.
 Give ear to my prayer, | O God,*
 and hide not yourself from my plea for | mercy!
 For it is not an enemy who taunts me—then I could | bear it;*
 it is not an adversary who deals insolently with me—then I could |
 hide from him.
 But it is you, a man, my | equal,*
 my companion, my fa- | miliar friend.
 We used to take sweet counsel to- | gether;*
 within God’s house we walked | in the throng.
 But I | call to God,*
 and the LORD will | save me.
Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*
and to the Holy | Spirit;
as it was in the be- | ginning,*
is now, and will be forever. | Amen.
 Cast your burden on the LORD, and he will sus- | tain you;*
 he will never permit the righteous to | be moved.

Collect of the Day

Gradual

Fear the LORD, | you his saints,*
 for those who fear him lack | nothing!
 Many are the afflictions of the | righteous,*
 but the LORD delivers him out | of them all.

Verse

Alleluia. Is not my word like fire, declares the LORD? What has straw in common with wheat? Alleluia.
