

Acts 1:12–26

Then [the apostles] returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey away. And when they had entered, they went up to the upper room, where they were staying, Peter and John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot and Judas the son of James. All these with one accord were devoting themselves to prayer, together with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and his brothers. In those days Peter stood up among the brothers (the company of persons was in all about 120) and said, "Brothers, the Scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke beforehand by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who became a guide to those who arrested Jesus. For he was numbered among us and was allotted his share in this ministry." (Now this man bought a field with the reward of his wickedness, and falling headlong he burst open in the middle and all his bowels gushed out. And it became known to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the field was called in their own language Akeldama, that is, Field of Blood.) "For it is written in the Book of Psalms, "'May his camp become desolate, and let there be no one to dwell in it'; and "'Let another take his office.' So one of the men who have accompanied us during all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us—one of these men must become with us a witness to his resurrection." And they put forward two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also called Justus, and Matthias. And they prayed and said, "You, Lord, who know the hearts of all, show which one of these two you have chosen to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place." And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

Revelation 22:1-6, 12–20

Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city; also, on either side of the river, the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit each month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. No longer will there be anything accursed, but the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him. They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. And night will be no more. They will need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign forever and ever. And he said to me, "These words are trustworthy and true. And the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, has sent his angel to show his servants what must soon take place." "Behold, I am coming soon, bringing my recompense with me, to repay everyone for what he has done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end." Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they may have the right to the tree of life and that they may enter the city by the gates. Outside are the dogs and sorcerers and the sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood. "I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify to you about these things for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star." The Spirit and the Bride say, "Come." And let the one who hears say, "Come." And let the one who is thirsty come; let the one who desires take the water of life without price. I warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: if anyone adds to them, God will add to him the plagues described in this book, and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his share in the tree of life and in the holy city, which are described in this book. He who testifies to these things says, "Surely I am coming soon." Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!

John 17:20–26

[Jesus said:] "I do not ask for these only, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. The glory that you have given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that you sent me and loved them even as you loved me. Father, I desire that they also, whom you have given me, may be with me where I am, to see my glory that you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world. O righteous Father, even though the world does not know you, I know you, and these know that you have sent me. I made known to them your name, and I will continue to make it known, that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them."

CATECHETICAL LESSON The Apostles Creed: The Third Article- I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen. What does this mean? I believe that I cannot by my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ, my Lord, or come to Him; but the Holy Spirit has called me by the Gospel, enlightened me with His gifts, sanctified and kept me in the true faith. In the same way He calls, gathers, enlightens, and sanctifies the whole Christian church on earth, and keeps it with Jesus Christ in the one true faith. In this Christian church He daily and richly forgives all my sins and the sins of all believers. On the Last Day He will raise me and all the dead, and give eternal life to me and all believers in Christ. This is most certainly true.

GRADUATE RECOGNITION PRAYER

Today we recognize our high school graduates for reaching this important milestone in their lives. Let us implore God's blessing upon this day and upon their lives.

Pastor: Lord God our Heavenly Father, this day we remember before You all of the Graduates of the Class of 2022. Let your ears be attentive to our prayer, and grant our requests for Jesus sake.

Graduates: Lord we thank You for our church, our church family, for our parents, and for the spiritual guidance and blessings that we have received through them.

People: We thank You, Lord, for the young men and women who have been a source of inspiration in our lives, in many ways.

Graduates: We thank You, Lord, for Your gift of strength You impart through Word and Sacraments which sustain our faith.

People: Lord, help them and us to treasure always the special relationship we have with You through our dear Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Graduates: Send Your Holy Spirit to dwell in us, that our bodies may be your temples. May Your Spirit empower us to be bold in our witness, clear in our perception of Your will and motivated in our desire to serve You.

People: Lord, we too need Your Spirit's power to give a good example to these graduates and to all with whom our lives come into contact.

Graduates: As we face the future with its uncertainties, hold us up with the assurance that You will never leave us nor forsake us. Lead us as we choose our life's vocation and as we seek to live out our lives in service to you and our neighbor.

People: Hear the requests of these graduates, Lord, and bless them as they journey through life. Guide them in the choices they make so that they will choose the good and avoid all evil. May they find fulfillment in living their lives in service to You and others.

Pastor: Hear our prayer, Oh Lord, for Jesus sake.

ALL: Amen.

Introit

Hear my cry, | O God,*
listen | to my prayer;
for you have been my | refuge,*
a strong tower against the | enemy.
For you, O God, have | heard my vows;*
you have given me the heritage of those who | fear your name.
Prolong the life | of the king;*
may his years endure to all gener- | ations!
May he be enthroned forever be- | fore God;*
appoint steadfast love and faithfulness to watch | over him!
So will I ever sing praises | to your name,*
as I perform my vows day | after day.
Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*
and to the Holy | Spirit;
as it was in the be- | ginning,*
is now, and will be forever. | Amen.
Hear my cry, | O God,*
listen | to my prayer.
