

Old Testament

Genesis 3:1–21

¹Now the serpent was more crafty than any other beast of the field that the LORD God had made.

He said to the woman, “Did God actually say, ‘You shall not eat of any tree in the garden?’” ²And the woman said to the serpent, “We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden, ³but God said, ‘You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree that is in the midst of the garden, neither shall you touch it, lest you die.’” ⁴But the serpent said to the woman, “You will not surely die. ⁵For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.” ⁶So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate, and she also gave some to her husband who was with her, and he ate. ⁷Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked. And they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves loincloths.

⁸And they heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden. ⁹But the LORD God called to the man and said to him, “Where are you?” ¹⁰And he said, “I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked, and I hid myself.” ¹¹He said, “Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten of the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?” ¹²The man said, “The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit of the tree, and I ate.” ¹³Then the LORD God said to the woman, “What is this that you have done?” The woman said, “The serpent deceived me, and I ate.”

¹⁴The LORD God said to the serpent, “Because you have done this, cursed are you above all livestock and above all beasts of the field; on your belly you shall go, and dust you shall eat all the days of your life. ¹⁵I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring; he shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel.”

¹⁶To the woman he said, “I will surely multiply your pain in childbearing; in pain you shall bring forth children. Your desire shall be for your husband, and he shall rule over you.”

¹⁷And to Adam he said, “Because you have listened to the voice of your wife and have eaten of the tree of which I commanded you, ‘You shall not eat of it,’ cursed is the ground because of you; in pain you shall eat of it all the days of your life; ¹⁸thorns and thistles it shall bring forth for you; and you shall eat the plants of the field. ¹⁹By the sweat of your face you shall eat bread, till you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken; for you are dust, and to dust you shall return.”

²⁰The man called his wife’s name Eve, because she was the mother of all living. ²¹And the LORD God made for Adam and for his wife garments of skins and clothed them.

Epistle

Romans 5:12–19

¹²Therefore, just as sin came into the world through one man, and death through sin, and so death spread to all men because all sinned— ¹³for sin indeed was in the world before the law was given, but sin is not counted where there is no law. ¹⁴Yet death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those whose sinning was not like the transgression of Adam, who was a type of the one who was to come.

¹⁵But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if many died through one man’s trespass, much more have the grace of God and the free gift by the grace of that one man Jesus Christ abounded for many. ¹⁶And the free gift is not like the result of that one man’s sin. For the judgment following one trespass brought condemnation, but the free gift following many trespasses brought justification. ¹⁷If, because of one man’s trespass, death reigned through that one man, much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man Jesus Christ.

¹⁸Therefore, as one trespass led to condemnation for all men, so one act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all men. ¹⁹For as by the one man’s disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man’s obedience the many will be made righteous.

Holy Gospel

Matthew 4:1–11

¹Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. ²And after fasting forty days and forty nights, he was hungry. ³And the tempter came and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread.” ⁴But he answered, “It is written, ‘“Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.”’” ⁵Then the devil took him to the holy city and set him on the pinnacle of the temple ⁶and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, ‘“He will command his angels concerning you,” and ““On their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone.”’” ⁷Jesus said to him, “Again it is written, ‘You shall not put the Lord your God to the test.’” ⁸Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. ⁹And he said to him, “All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.” ¹⁰Then Jesus said to him, “Be gone, Satan! For it is written, ‘“You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve.”’” ¹¹Then the devil left him, and behold, angels came and were ministering to him.

Man shall not live
by bread alone,

but by every word
that comes from the mouth of God

Matthew 4:4

Lent

About the Cover: The devil tempts us when we are at our most vulnerable. Jesus spent forty days in the wilderness; being true man, He was weak from hunger. The devil tempted Him to turn stones into bread for His own benefit. Jesus doesn’t fall for the temptation. He knows what the devil is doing and says, “Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.” We are to live by God’s Word, not by the devil’s temptations and lies.

TODAY'S BULLETINS are sponsored by Steve & Sue Juno.

SPECIAL VOTERS MEETING will be held on Sunday, March 12 right after church regarding taking out a loan to replace the parking lot and to repair and upgrade the organ. All confirmed members, at least 18 years old, are encouraged to be in attendance.

SPRING AHEAD for Daylight Savings Time – Set your clocks ahead one hour before going to bed on Saturday so you're not late for Sunday school, Bible class, or church.

JOIN US "AT THE CROSSROADS" on Wednesday – This week we hear from Judas which, I pray, will help us to avoid the crossroads of betrayal.

BASKETS OF PROMISE - Donate items for Lutheran World Relief Kits to help people in need. This Lenten season, our congregation is taking part in LWR's Baskets of Promise campaign. Each week in Lent, we'll collect items to form LWR Personal Care Kits that help impoverished people stay healthy in life's most challenging situations. Next week we'll be collecting Bath Towels (light-weight, maximum 52" x 27", dark color recommended). Please bring your donations to worship next Sunday. If you have any questions, please contact the church office.

LADIES AID would like to thank all the men and women who helped in the preparation and serving of the chili dinner. If you provided some of the ingredients, baked a pie, or helped with the clean-up it was greatly appreciated. Many hands make light work. The Lord blessed us with a beautiful day, people to take-out or dine with us. It was a sellout. Thanks!

LENTEN MEALS: Meals are Wednesday evenings from 5:45-6:45 p.m. Sign-up sheets are posted on the bulletin board. Menu – Mar. 8: Meatloaf, cheesy potatoes, vegetable, salad, dessert, & beverage.

2017 CHURCH DIRECTORIES are available in the church narthex if you'd like a copy.

MARCH MADNESS BRACKET CHALLENGE – If you are interested in participating in the bracket challenge here at church, please sign up on the table in the narthex. The cost is $1 per person. The winner receives a $25 scrip card and any proceeds will go toward the Hearing Loop Fund. The deadline to sign up is today.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON: The children learned about "Jesus and Zacchaeus" in Luke 19:1-10. When Jesus went to Zacchaeus's house He demonstrated that God blesses and fills our hungry souls with His gifts. Consider discussing, "How did Jesus show His care of Zacchaeus? How does He show His care for us?"
