

Mid-Week Stewardship Thought

We Are God's Instruments

As Christians, we can, by grace, share God's love with others through our good acts. God has chosen and equipped us to be His instruments of support, service, and compassion. As C. S. Lewis wrote, "Good and evil both increase at compound interest. That is why the little decisions you and I make every day are of such infinite importance. The smallest good act today is the capture of a strategic point from which, a few months later, you may be able to go on to victories you never dreamed of." In essence, God uses the small things that we do and multiplies them into something significant. Paul wrote, "Now to Him Who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to His power that is at work within us, to Him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations for ever and ever! Amen." (Ephesians 3:20-21).

Prayer: Our gracious Heavenly Father, I thank You for the gift of faith. Grant me steadfast faith so that I can withstand the temptations of Satan, the world, and my flesh. Help me to be the instrument You want me to be. In Christ's name I pray. Amen

Blessings on your stewardship journey!
