

Mid-week Stewardship Thought

Go tell the world Jesus died for all!

Stewards of the Christmas Gospel

As Christians, we are all stewards of the Gospel. We are to be messengers of God's Good News that Christ was born to save. Sometimes it's difficult to share this news. We don't want to put anyone off. The "perfect" opportunities don't often come along, and when they do, we don't know what to say. There is a perfect opportunity, however. God has given us exactly the right words, and rarely does the Christmas story put anyone off. Let's not waste our opportunity! What message does your Christmas card convey? Does it announce the birth of Jesus or wish your loved ones "Happy Holidays"? Does your Christmas letter mention how God has shed His grace on you and your family during the past year?

Jesus came to live among us to forgive us, reconcile us with our Heavenly Father, and give us life everlasting. Personalize that message. Tell others how the birth of Christ has touched you. Remind others that they are unique creatures whom Christ came to save. Tell them that they are among "all the people" to whom the angels brought "good news of great joy" (Luke 2:10). Tell them that Christ, the Baby in the manger, became a man Who died for their sins so that they can live eternally in heaven with Him. With God's strength, use this Christmas season to proclaim Jesus' love for all people boldly and loudly.

Prayer: Lord, You have called us to be Your disciples and entrusted us with Your Gospel. Help us to remain faithful to that trust. Amen.

Blessings on your stewardship journey!
